The Witness camera was designed by two German-Jewish refugees who fled to Britain in the late 1930s. Robert Sternberg was an ex-Leitz employee and D. A. Rothschild was an ex-Zeiss employee. In 1947 Rothschild approached Ilford to finance and market a camera.

Sternberg and Rothschild’s design went through a series of unsuccessful prototypes and manufacture was finally put in the hands of a precision engineering company Peto Scott Electric Instruments Ltd of Weybridge. An initial order of 250 cameras was placed and produced. Total production is unlikely to have exceeded 350 cameras.

THE NAHAS COLLECTION
(Lots 752 - 755)

Mr. Nahas acquired his first Leica in 1952 at a time when he actively used it to produce the University Year Book. He continued to collect Leicas for the next half century acquiring increasingly early pieces. With a keen eye for quality examples, Mr. Nahas would patiently select the highest quality specimen of pre-war Leicas he could find. His collecting apexed during the 80s when he began pursuing a number of very rare Leicas including the elusive Luxus and some early three digit Model A’s. He often passes time reading Leica publications and exploring the evolution of this revolutionary company.

HK$400,000 - 600,000
US$52,000 - 77,000

The Hegelein watch camera is an American copy of the earlier British Lancaster watch camera. The camera was subject of the US Patent no. 624142 of the 7th August 1894 and it was marketed from August 1895 where it was prices at US $5.

Anthony's Photographic Bulletin reported on the camera as follows:

“The Watch Camera. Quiet recently many efforts have been made to furnish photographers with a really efficient camera that is truely a detective camera, which while being very compact and portable is at the same time capable of producing work of good quality.
that will stand enlargement. Many toys have been produced and many cameras of more or less complex mechanism. It must be remembered that simplicity in a camera is most desirable, and this is especially the case where the camera is very small, for then the mechanism is necessarily delicate and liable to go out of order. The latest novelty (the Helgelein) however seems to be free from complication and has the advantage that while making a picture 3/4 inch diameter, it can carried in the vest pocket. It is in the shape of a watch and is in fact, a camera in a watch case. When closed, pressure on the stem-winder throws down one side and reveals a camera, fitted with a time and instantaneous shutter. Opening the back, a rim is exposed in which is fitted the film holder. The shutter being set and the slide withdrawn, exposure is made by pressure on a small button. The holder is removed, the front of the camera pushed in, the two sides closed and a compact, unbreakable "watch" may be slipped into the pocket. For bicyclists and tourists it should prove invaluable. In our hands it has proved very successful.

LUCKY STRIKE SPY CAMERA
Mast Development Corp, USA.
16mm metal-body, with matt-black body and chrome top plate, four-speed shutter B, 00, 25, 5, four-position aperture and film advance, contained within a paper Lucky Strike cigarette packet, a metal body light meter disguised as an Ohio Safety match box.

HK$320,000 - 500,000
US$41,000 - 65,000

The camera fitted into the actual outer wrapper from a Lucky Strike cigarette packet. It was made to a very high standard with a five-element f/2.7 17.5mm Sonnar-type lens. A focal plane shutter was mounted in front of the lens and provided shutter speeds from B,5,=50,00. Eighteen exposures on 16mm film could be made.

The Lucky Strike was developed for the U.S. Signal Corps c. 1949-1950. The selenium light meter was built by Quavas Corporation. This camera is one of only two known to have been made, the other exampled is in the Signal Corps Museum, Ft. Monmouth, U.S.A. The initial contract for a concealable camera to fulfill military requirements for a 16mm precision still camera for application in situations where the use of such cameras was desirable was given to the DeMornay-Budd Co. which developed a model in 1946-49. This did not meet the specification and another contract was given to the Mast Development Co. Inc. who developed two models during 1949-50. Neither was ever adopted by the U.S army. Hindle when writing his article in 1974 was only able to account for one of each model. White, interviewing Edward Kaprelian, the original engineer who headed the project, was told by Kaprelian that two were made.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

This notice is addressed by Bonhams to any person who may be interested in a Lot, including Bidders and potential Bidders (including any eventual Buyer of the Lot). For ease of reference we refer to such persons as "Bidders" or "you". Our List of Definitions and Glossary is incorporated into this Notice to Bidders. It is at Appendix 3 at the back of the Catalogue. Where words and phrases are used in this Notice which are in the List of Definitions, they are printed in italics.

IMPORTANT: Additional information applicable to the Sale may be set out in the Catalogue for the Sale, in an insert in the Catalogue and/or in a notice displayed at the Sale venue and you should read them as well. Announcements affecting the Sale may be made orally before and during the Sale without prior written notice. You should be alert to this possibility of changes and ask in advance of bidding if there have been any.

1. OUR ROLE

In its role as auctioneer of Lots, Bonhams acts solely for and in the interests of the Seller. Bonhams’ job is to sell the Lot at the highest price obtainable at the Sale to a Bider. Bonhams does not act for Buyers or Bidders in this role and does not give advice to Buyers or Bidders. When it or its staff make statements about a Lot or, if Bonhams provides a Condition Report on a Lot it is doing that on behalf of the Seller of the Lot. Bidders and Buyers who are themselves not expert in the Lot are strongly advised to seek and obtain independent advice on the Lots and their value before bidding for them.

The Seller has authorised Bonhams to sell the Lot as its agent on its behalf and, save where we expressly make it clear to the contrary, Bonhams acts only as agent for the Seller. Any statement or representation we make in respect of a Lot is made on the Seller’s behalf and, unless Bonhams sells a Lot as principal, not on our behalf or any Contract for Sale is between Bonhams and the Seller and not the Buyer. If Bonhams sells a Lot as principal this will either be stated in the Catalogue or an announcement to that effect will be made by the Auctioneer. No statement will be stated in a notice at the Sale or an insert in the Catalogue.

Bonhams does not owe or undertake or agree to any duty or responsibility to you in contract or tort (whether direct, collateral, express, implied or otherwise). If you successfully bid for a Lot and buy it, at that stage Bonhams does enter into an agreement with you and the Seller and not the Buyer. The terms of that agreement are set out in our Buyer’s Agreement save for those varied by announcement given out orally before and/or during the Sale, which you will find at Appendix 2 at the back of the Catalogue. This will govern Bonhams’ relationship with the Buyer.

2. LOTS

Subject to the Contractual Description printed in bold letters in the Entry about the Lot in the Catalogue (see paragraph 3 below), Lots are offered on an “as is” basis, with all faults and imperfections. No reference is made in the Catalogue to any defect, damage or restoration of the Lot. Please see paragraph 15.

Illustrations and photographs contained in the Catalogue (other than photographs forming part of the Contractual Description) or elsewhere of any Lots are for identification purposes only. They may not reveal the true condition of the Lot. A photograph or illustration may not reflect an accurate reproduction of the colour(s) of the Lot.

Lots are available for inspection prior to the Sale and it is for you to satisfy yourself as to each and every aspect of a Lot, including its condition, restoration, condition of preservation, history, background, authenticity, style, period, age, suitability, quality, roadworthiness (if relevant), origin, value and estimated selling price (including the Hammer price). It is your responsibility to examine any Lot in which you are interested.

It should be remembered that the actual condition of a Lot may not be as good as that indicated by its outward appearance. In particular, parts may have been replaced or renewed and Lots may not be authentic or of satisfactory quality; the inside of a Lot may not be visible and may not be original or may be damaged, as for example where it is covered by upholstery or material. Given the age of many Lots they may have been damaged and/or repaired and you should not assume that a Lot is in good condition.

Electronic or mechanical parts may not operate or may not comply with current statutory requirements. You should not assume that electronic items designed to operate on mains electricity will be suitable for connection to the mains electricity supply and you should obtain a report from a qualified electrician on their status before doing so. Such items which are unsuitable for connection are sold as items of interest for decoration only. If you yourself do not have expertise regarding a Lot, you should consult someone who does to advise you. We can assist in arranging for you to see Lots but we are not able to provide an in-depth inspection.

Lot descriptions are in good condition.

3. DESCRIPTIONS OF LOTS AND ESTIMATES

Contractual Description of a Lot

The Catalogue contains an Entry about each Lot. Each Lot is sold by its respective Seller to that orally before and during the Sale as corresponding only with that part of the Entry which is printed in bold letters and (except for the colour, which may be inaccurate reproductions) with any photographs in the Catalogue in the remainder of the Entry, which is not printed in bold letters, represents Bonhams’ opinion (given on behalf of the Seller) about the Lot only and is not part of the Contractual Description in accordance with which the Lot is sold by the Seller.

Estimates

In most cases, an Estimate is printed beside the Entry. Estimates are only an expression of Bonhams’ opinion made on behalf of the Seller of the range where Bonhams thinks the Hammer Price for the Lot is likely to fall; it is not an estimate of value. It does not take into account any Tax or Buyer’s Premium payable. Lots can in fact sell for Hammer Prices below and above the Estimate. Any Estimate should not be relied on as an indication of the actual selling price or value of a Lot.

Estimates are in the currency of the Sale.

Condition reports

In respect of most Lots, you may ask for a Condition Report on its physical condition from Bonhams. If you do so, this will be provided by Bonhams on behalf of the Seller free of charge. Bonhams is not entering into a contract with you in respect of the Condition Report and accordingly does not assume responsibility to you in respect of it. Nor does the Seller owe or agree to owe you as a Bider any obligation or duty in respect of this free report about a Lot which is available for your own inspection or for inspection by an expert instructed by you. However, any written description of the physical condition of the Lot contained in a Condition Report will form part of the Contractual Description of the Lot under which it is sold to any Buyer.

The Seller’s responsibility to you

The Seller does not make or agree to make any representation of fact or contractual promise, guarantee or warranty and undertakes no obligation or duty, whether in contract or in tort (other than to the eventual Buyer as set out above), in respect of the accuracy or completeness of any description of a Lot or as to the anticipated or likely selling price of any Lot. Other than as set out above, no statement or representation in any way descriptive of a Lot or any Estimate is incorporated into any Contract for Sale between a Seller and a Buyer.

Bonhams’ responsibility to you

You have the opportunity of examining the Lot if you want to and the Contract for Sale for a Lot is with the Seller and not with Bonhams; Bonhams acts as the Seller’s agent only (unless Bonhams sells the Lot as principal).

Bonhams undertakes no obligation to you to examine, investigate or research the condition of or to offer any advice about a Lot or at all, on each Lot to establish the accuracy or otherwise of any descriptions or opinions given by Bonhams, or by any person on Bonhams’ behalf, whether in the Catalogue or elsewhere.

You should not suppose that such examinations, investigations or tests have occurred.

Bonhams does not make or agree to make any representation of fact, and undertakes no obligation or duty (whether in contract or tort) in respect of the accuracy or completeness of any statement or representation made by Bonhams or on Bonhams’ behalf which is in any way descriptive of any Lot or as to the anticipated or likely selling price of any Lot.

No statement or representation by Bonhams or on its behalf in any way descriptive of any Lot or any Estimate is incorporated into our Buyer’s Agreement.

Alternations

Descriptions and Estimates may be amended at Bonhams’ discretion from time to time by notice given orally or in writing before or during a Sale.

The Lot is available for inspection and you must make your own independent verification of the accuracy of any description or representation made by Bonhams or on Bonhams’ behalf which is in any way descriptive of any Lot or as to the anticipated or likely selling price of any Lot.

4. CONDUCT OF THE SALE

Our Sales are public auctions which persons may attend and you should take the opportunity to do so.

We do reserve the right at our sole discretion to refuse admission to our premises or to any Sale without stating a reason. We have complete discretion as to whether the Sale will proceed, whether any Lot is included in the Sale in the manner in which the Sale is conducted and we may offer Lots for sale in any order we choose notwithstanding the numbers given in the Lot description. You should therefore check the date and starting time of the Sale, whether there have been any withdrawals or late entries. Remember that withdrawals and late entries may affect the time at which a Lot you are interested in is put up for sale.

We have complete discretion to refuse any bid, to nominate any bidding increment we consider appropriate, to divide any Lot, to combine two or more Lots, to withdraw any Lot from a Sale and, before the Sale has been closed, to put up any Lot for auction again.

Auction speeds can exceed 100 Lots to the hour and bidding increments are generally about 10%. However these do vary from Sale to Sale and from Auctioneer to Auctioneer. Please check with the department organising the Sale for advice on this.

Where a Reserve has been applied to a Lot, the Auctioneer may, in his absolute discretion, place bids (up to an amount not equaling or exceeding such Reserve) on behalf of the Seller. We are not responsible for any duty or responsibility with respect to the presence or absence of any Reserve in respect of any Lot.

If there is a Reserve it will normally be no higher than the lower figure for any Estimate in the Catalogue, assuming that the currency of the Reserve has not fluctuated adversely against the currency of the Estimate.

The Buyer will be the Bider who makes the highest bid acceptable to the Auctioneer for any Lot (subject to any applicable Reserve which is in any way descriptive of any Lot) and the Seller will be the Seller of the Lot at the striking of the Auctioneer’s hammer.

Any dispute as to the highest acceptable bid will be settled by the Auctioneer in his absolute discretion.

All bids tendered will relate to the actual Lot number announced by the Auctioneer.

An electronic currency converter may be used at the Sale. This equipment is provided as a general guide as to the approximate amount in certain currencies of the given bid. We do not accept any responsibility for any errors which may occur in the use of the currency converter.

We hereby give you notice that we may use video cameras to record the Sale and may record telephone calls for reasons of security and to assist in solving any disputes which may arise in relation to bids made at the Sale.

At some Sales, for example, jewellery Sales, we may use screens on which images of the Lots will be projected. This service is provided to assist the live viewing at the Sale. The image on the screen should be treated as an indication only of the current Lot. It should be noted that all bids tendered will relate to the actual Lot number announced by the Auctioneer. We do not accept any responsibility for any errors which may occur in the use of the screen.

5. BIDDING

We do not accept bids from any person who has not completed and delivered to us one of our Bidding Forms, either our Bidding Registration Form, Absentee and Telephone Bidding Form before the Sale. You may be asked for proof of identity, residence, financial details and references, which, if required, you must supply if your bids are to be accepted by us. Please bring your passport, Hong Kong Identity Card (or similar photo proof of identity) and a debit or credit card. We may request a deposit from you before allowing you to bid.

We may refuse entry to a Sale to any person even if that person has completed a Bidding Form.

Bidding in person

You should come to our Bidding registration desk at the Sale venue and fill out a Bidding Registration Form (or, before possible, the day before a Sale). The bidding number system is sometimes referred to as “paddle bidding”. You will be issued with a large card (a "paddle") with a printed number on it. This will be attributed to you for the purposes of the Sale. Should you be a successful Bidder you will need to ensure that your number can be clearly seen by the Auctioneer and that it is your number which is identified as the Buyer’s. You should not let anyone else use your paddle as all Lots will be invoiced to the name and address given on your Bidder Registration Form. Once an invoice is issued it will not be changed.

If there is any doubt as to the Hammer Price of, or whether you are the successful Bidder for, a particular Lot, you must draw this to the attention of the Auctioneer before the next Lot is offered for Sale. The decision of the Auctioneer is considered final and conclusive.

At the end of the Sale, or when you have finished bidding please return your paddle to the Bidder registration desk.

Bidding by telephone
If you wish to bid at the Sale by telephone, please complete an Absentee or Telephone Bidding Form, which is available from our offices or in the Catalogue. Please then return it to the office which is responsible for the Sale at least 24 hours in advance of the Sale. It is your responsibility to check with our Bids Office that your bid has been received. Telephone calls may be recorded. The telephone bidding facility is a discretionary service and may not be available in relation to all Lots. We will not be responsible for bidding on your behalf if you are unavailable at the time of the Sale or if the telephone connection is interrupted during bidding. Please contact us for further details.

Bidding post by post or fax
Absentee and Telephone Bidding Forms can be found in the back of this Catalogue and should be completed and sent to the office responsible for the Sale. It is in your interests to return your form as soon as possible, as if two or more Bidders submit an identical bid, the high bidder’s form will be accepted. Telephone calls may be recorded. The telephone bidding facility is a discretionary service and may not be available in relation to all Lots. We will not be responsible for bidding on your behalf if you are unavailable at the time of the Sale or if the telephone connection is interrupted during bidding. Please contact us for further details.

Bidding through the internet
Please visit our Website at http://www.bonhams.com for details of how to bid via the internet.

Bidding through an agent
Agents will be accepted as placed on behalf of the person named as the principal on the Bidding Form although we may refuse to accept bids from an agent on behalf of a principal and may require the agent to provide us with information from the principal confirming the agent’s authority to bid. Nevertheless, as the Bidding Form explains, any person placing a bid as an agent on behalf of another will not be held responsible in the event of a dispute (whether or not he has存货清偿 or the identity of his principal) will be jointly and severally liable with the principal to the Seller and to Bonhams under any contract resulting from the acceptance of a bid.

Subject to the above, please let us know if you are acting on behalf of another person when bidding for Lots at the Sale. Equally, please let us know if you intend to nominate another person to bid on your behalf at the Sale unless this is to be carried out by us pursuant to an Absentee and Telephone Bidding Form. If you do not notify the agency arrangements in writing before the Sale, we are entitled to assume that the person bidding at the Sale is bidding on his own behalf. Accordingly, the person bidding at the Sale will be the Buyer and will be liable to pay the Hammer Price and Buyer’s Premium and associated charges. If we approve the identity of your client in advance, we will be in a position to address the invoice directly to your principal rather than you. We will require proof of the agent’s client’s identity and residence in advance of any bids made by the agent on his behalf. Please refer to our Conditions of Sale and contact our Customer Services Department for further details.

On the Lot being knocked down to the Buyer, a Contract for Sale of the Lot will be entered into between the Seller and the Buyer on the terms of the Contract for Sale set out in Appendix 1 at the back of the Catalogue save for those varied by announcement given out orally before and/or during the Sale. You will be liable to pay the Purchase Price, which is the Hammer Price plus any Tax.

At the same time, a separate contract is also entered into between us as auctioneers and the Buyer’s Agreement, the terms of which are set out in Appendix 2 at the end of the Catalogue. Please read the terms of the Contract for Sale and our Buyer’s Agreement contained in the Catalogue in case of any doubt. We may change the terms of either or both of these agreements in advance of their being entered into, by setting out different terms in the Catalogue and/or by notices at the Sale. We cannot accept liability for our failure to receive and/or by oral announcements before and during the Sale. You should be alert to this possibility of changes and ask if there have been any.

7. BUYER’S PREMIUM AND OTHER CHARGES PAYABLE BY THE BUYER

Under the Buyer’s Agreement, a premium (the Buyer’s Premium) is payable to us by the Buyer in accordance with the terms of the Buyer’s Agreement and at rates set out below, calculated on the Hammer Price and paid in addition to it. Storage charges and Expenses are also payable by the Buyer as set out in the Buyer’s Agreement.

For this Sale the following rates of Buyer’s Premium will be payable by Buyers of Lots:

- 25% up to HK$800,000 of the Hammer Price
- 20% from HK$800,001 of the Hammer Price

8. TAX

The Hammer Price and the Buyer’s Premium payable by the Buyer is exclusive of any goods service tax or other Tax (whether imposed by Hong Kong or otherwise). If any such Tax was not to be passed on to the Buyer, the Seller shall be solely responsible to pay such Tax and at the rate and time as required by the relevant law, or if such Tax is to be paid by us, we may add such Tax to the Purchase Price payable by the Buyer.

9. PAYMENT

It is of critical importance that you ensure that you have readily available funds to pay the Purchase Price and the Buyer’s Premium (plus Tax and any other charges and Expenses) as tax or in full, completing a bid for the Lot. If you are a successful Bidder, payment will be due to be made to us by 4:30 pm on the second working day after the Sale so that all sums are cleared by the seventh working day after the Sale. Payment will have to be by one of the following methods (all cheques should be made payable to Bonhams (Hong Kong Limited)). Bonhams reserves the right to vary the terms of payment at any time. Unless agreed by us, advance payments made by anyone other than the registered buyer will not be accepted.

Hong Kong dollar personal cheque drawn on a Hong Kong branch of a bank: all cheques must be cleared before you can collect your purchases.

Bankers draft cheque: if you can provide suitable proof of identity and we are satisfied as to the genuineness of the draft or cheque, and that the funds have originated from your own account, we will allow you to collect your purchases immediately.

Cash: you may pay for Lots purchased by you at this Sale with notes, coins or travellers cheques in the currency in which the Sale is conducted (but not any other currency) provided that the total amount payable by you in respect of all Lots purchased by you at the Sale does not exceed HK$800,000. If the amount payable by you exceeds that sum, the balance must be paid otherwise than in coins, notes or travellers cheques.

Debit cards issued by a Hong Kong bank: there is no additional charge for purchases made with these cards.

credit cards: American Express, Visa and Mastercard only.

Please note there is a 2% surcharge on the total invoice value when payments are made using credit cards. It may be advisable to notify your card provider of your intended purchase in advance to reduce delays caused by us having to issue a special arrangement with the buyer. Details relating to the collection of a Lot, the storage of a Lot and our Storage Contractor after the Sale are set out in the Buyer’s Agreement as set out in Appendix 2 of the Catalogue.

10. COLLECTION AND STORAGE

The Buyer of a Lot will not be allowed to collect it until payment in full and in cleared funds has been made (unless we have made a special arrangement with the Buyer). Details relating to the collection of the Lot, the storage of a Lot and our Storage Contractor after the Sale are set out in the Buyer’s Agreement as set out in Appendix 2 of the Catalogue.

11. SHIPPING

Please refer enquiries on this to our customer services department dealing with the Sale.

12. EXPORT/TRADE RESTRICTIONS

It is your sole responsibility to ensure all Hong Kong export and overseas import regulations relating to your purchases and also to obtain any relevant export and/or import licence(s).

The need for export and import licences varies from country to country and you should acquaint yourself with all relevant local requirements and provisions.

The refusal of any import or export licence(s) or any delay in obtaining such licence(s) shall result in your not being allowed to make full payment for the Lot.

13. CITES REGULATIONS

Buyers are advised to check the regulations applicable to Hong Kong exportation and overseas importation when exporting any goods from Hong Kong to the place of consumption. Buyers should also be aware that the import of Hong Kong of any items made or imported ivory, whalebone, tortoiseshell, rhinoceros horn, coral and other restricted materials is prohibited unless a CITES export licence is obtained from the Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department of Hong Kong. A period of 8 weeks may be required for the purposes of obtaining such export licence.

Please note that Lots marked in the catalogue with a Y next to the lot number contain one or more of the aforesaid restricted materials. However, the omission of such letter Y does not automatically mean that the Lot is not subject to CITES regulations. Buyers are advised to obtain information from the relevant regulatory authorities concerning export and import restrictions, requirements and costs prior to bidding.

14. THE SELLERS AND OR BONHAMS’ LIABILITY

Other than any liability of the Seller to the Buyer of a Lot under the Contract for Sale, neither we nor the Seller are liable (whether in negligence or otherwise) for any error or misdescription or omission in any Description of a Lot or any Estimate in respect of it, whether contained in the Catalogue or otherwise, whether given orally or in writing and whether given before or during the Sale. Neither we nor the Seller will be liable for any loss of Business, profits, revenue or income, or for loss of reputation, or for disruption to Business or wasted time on the part of management or staff, or for indirect losses or consequential damages of any kind, irrespective of the nature, volume or source of the loss or damage alleged to be suffered, and irrespective of whether the said loss or damage is caused by or claimed in respect of any negligence, other tort, breach of contract (if any) or statutory duty, restitution claim or otherwise.

In any circumstances where we and/or the Seller are liable in relation to any Lot or any Description or Estimate made of any Lot, or the conduct of any Sale in relation to any Lot, whether in damages, for an act or omission, or for a contributory cause, or for a restitutive remedy or otherwise, our and/or the Seller’s liability (combined, if both we and the Seller are liable) will be limited to payment of a sum which will not exceed by way of maximum the amount of the Purchase Price of the Lot irrespective in any case of the nature, volume or source of any loss or damage alleged to be suffered or claimed as due, and irrespective of whether the said loss or damage is caused by or claimed in respect of any negligence, other tort, breach of contract (if any) or statutory duty or otherwise.

Nothing set out above will be construed as excluding or restricting (whether directly or indirectly) our liability or excluding or restricting any person’s rights or remedies in respect of (i) fraud, or (ii) death or personal injury caused by... our negligence (or by the negligence of any person under our control or for whose acts we are legally responsible), or (ii) any omissions for which we are liable under the Occupiers Liability Ordinance (Chapter 314 of the Laws of Hong Kong), or (vi) any other liability to the extent the same may not be excluded or restricted as to its nature, law or (v) our undertakings under paragraph 9 of the Buyer’s Agreement. The same applies in respect of the Seller, as if references to us in this paragraph were substituted with references to the Seller.

15. DAMAGE AND RESTORATION
Bidders should note that there is no reference to any defect, damage or restoration in this Catalogue. A detailed Condition Report can be provided by Bonhams up to 24 hours before the Sale. When providing Condition Reports, we do not guarantee that we have noted all other defects present which have not been mentioned. Bidders should satisfy themselves by inspection, as to the condition of each Lot. Please see the Contract for Sale printed in this Catalogue.

16. BOOKS
As stated above, all Lots are sold on an “as is” basis, subject to all faults, imperfections and errors of Description save as set out below. However, you will be entitled to reject a Book in the circumstances set out in paragraph 11 of the Buyers Agreement. Please note that Lots comprising printed Books, unframed maps and bound manuscripts are not liable to VAT on the Buyer’s Premium.

17. CLOCKS AND WATCHES
All Lots are sold “as is”, and the absence of any reference to the condition of a clock or watch does not imply that the Lot is in good condition and without defects, repairs or restorations. Most clocks and watches have been repaired in the course of their normal lifetime and may now incorporate parts not original to them. Furthermore, Bonhams makes no representation or warranty that any clock or watch is in working order. As clocks and watches contain fine and complex mechanisms, Bidders should be aware that a general service, change of battery or further repair work, for which the Buyer is solely responsible, may be necessary. Bidders should be aware that the inspection of watches such as Rolex, Franck Muller and Corum in the United States is highly restricted. These watches may not be shipped to the USA and can only be imported personally.

18. JEWELLERY
Ruby and Jadeite
Ruby and jadeite gemstones of Burmese (Myanmar) origin may not be imported into the US. Rubies and jadeites of non-Burmese origin require certification before import into the US and it is the Buyer’s responsibility to obtain all relevant and required export/import licences, certificates and documentation before shipping. Failure by the Buyer to successfully import goods into the US does not constitute grounds for non-payment or cancellation of Sale. Bonhams will not be responsible for any additional costs in this regard howsoever incurred.

Gemstones
Historically many gemstones have been subjected to a variety of treatments to enhance their appearance. Sapphires and rubies are routinely heat treated to improve their colour and clarity, similarly emeralds are frequently treated with oils or resin for the same purpose. Other treatments such as staining, irradiation or coating may have been used on other gemstones. These treatments may be permanent, whilst others may need special care or re-treatment over the years to retain their appearance. Bidders should be aware that Estimates assume that gemstones may have been subjected to such treatments. Absent of laboratories issue certificates that give more detailed Descriptions of gemstones. However there may not be consensus between different laboratories on the degrees, or types of treatment for any particular gemstone. In the event that Bonhams has been given or has obtained certificates for any Lot in the Sale these certificates will be disclosed in the Catalogue. Although, as a matter of policy, Bonhams endeavours to provide certificates from recognised laboratories for certain gemstones, it is not feasible to obtain certificates for each Lot. In the event that no certificate is published in the Catalogue, Bidders should assume that the gemstones may have been treated. Neither Bonhams nor the Seller accepts any liability for contradictions or differing certificates obtained by Buyers on any Lots subsequent to the Sale.

Estimated Weights
If a stone(s) weight appears within the body of the Description in capital letters, the stone(s) has been unmounted and weighed by Bonhams. If the weight of the stone(s) is stated to be approximate and does not appear in capital letters, the stone(s) has been assessed by us within its last setting. Any variation in weight is a statement of our opinion only. This information is given as a guide and Bidders should satisfy themselves with regard to this information as to its accuracy.

Signatures
1. A diamond brooch, by Kutchinsky
When the maker’s name appears in the title, in Bonhams’ opinion the piece is by that maker.

2. A diamond brooch, signed Kutchinsky
Has a signature that is characteristic of the maker’s hand, is authentic but may contain gemstones that are not original, or the piece may have been altered.

3. A diamond brooch, mounted by Kutchinsky
Has been created by the jeweler, in Bonhams’ opinion, but using stones or designs supplied by the client.

19. PICTURES
Explanation of Catalogue Terms
The following terms used in the Catalogue have the following meanings but are subject to the general provisions relating to Descriptions contained in the Contract for Sale:

• “Jacopo Bassano”: in our opinion a work by the artist. When the artist’s forename(s) is not known, a series of artist names is followed by the surname of the artist, whether preceded by an initial or, not indicates that in our opinion the work is by the artist named.

• “Attributed to Jacopo Bassano”: in our opinion probably a work by the artist but less certain as authorship is expressed than in the preceding category.

• “Studio/Workshop of Jacopo Bassano”: in our opinion a work by an unknown hand in a studio of the artist which may or may not have been executed under the artist’s direction.

• “Circle of Jacopo Bassano”: in our opinion a work by a hand closely associated with a named artist but not necessarily his pupil.

• “Follower of Jacopo Bassano”: in our opinion a work by a painter working in the artist’s style, contemporary or nearly contemporary, but not necessarily his pupil.

• “Manner of Jacopo Bassano”: in our opinion a work in the style of the artist and of a later date.

• “After Jacopo Bassano”: in our opinion, a copy of a known work of the artist.

• “Signed and/or dated and/or inscribed”: in our opinion the signature and/or date and/or inscription are from the hand of the artist.

• “Bears a signature and/or date and/or inscription”: in our opinion the signature and/or date and/or inscription have been added by another hand.

20. PORCELAIN AND GLASS
Damage and Restoration
For your guidance, in our Catalogues we detail, as far as practicable, recorded all significant defects, cracks and restoration. Such practicable Descriptions of damage cannot be definitive, and in providing Condition Reports, we cannot Guarantee that there are no other defects present which have not been mentioned. Bidders should satisfy themselves by inspection, as to the condition of each Lot. Please see the Contract for Sale printed in this Catalogue. Because of the difficulty in determining the results of restoration, if a Lot has been relaid, in our Catalogues reference is only made to visible chips and cracks. No mention is made of repolishing, severe or otherwise.

21. WINE
Lots which are lying under Bond and those liable to VAT may not be available for immediate collection.

Examining the wines
It is occasionally possible to provide a Pre-Sale tasting for larger parcels (as described below). This is generally limited to more recent and everyday drinking wines. Please contact the department for details.

It is not our policy to inspect every unopened case. In the case of wines older than 20 years the boxes will usually have been opened and levels and appearance noted in the Catalogue where necessary. You should make proper allowance for variations in filling levels and conditions of corks, capsules and labels.

Corks and Ullages
Ullage refers to the space between the base of the cork and the wine. Ullage levels for Bordeaux shaped bottles are only normally noted when below the neck and for Burgundy, Alsace, German and Cognac shaped bottles when greater than 4 centimetres (cm). Acceptable ullage levels increase with age; generally acceptable levels are as follows:

Under 15 years old – into neck or less than 4cm
15 to 30 years old – top shoulder (bs) or up to 5cm
Over 30 years old – high shoulder (hs) or up to 6cm

It should be noted that ullages may change between publication of the Catalogue and the Sale and that corks may fail as a result of transporting the wine. We will only accept responsibility for Descriptions of condition at the time of publication of the Catalogue and cannot accept responsibility for any loss resulting from failure of corks either before or after this point.

Options to buy parcels
A parcel is a number of Lots of identical size of the same wine, bottle size and Description. The Buyer of any of these Lots has the option to accept some or all of the remaining Lots in the parcel at the same price, although such options will be at the Auctioneer’s sole discretion. Absentee Bidders are, therefore, advised to bid on the first Lot in a parcel.

OB – Domaine bottled
EstB – Estate bottled
BB – Bordeaux bottled
BE – Belgian bottled
FB – French bottled
GB – German bottled
OB – Oporto bottled
UK – United Kingdom bottled
owc – original wooden case

SYMBOLS
THE FOLLOWING SYMBOLS ARE USED TO DENOTE

Subject to CITES regulations when exporting these items outside the EU, please clause 13.

Please note that as a result of recent legislation ruby and jadeite gem stones of Burmese (Myanmar) origin may not be imported into the US. Rubies and jadeite of non-Burmese origin require certification before import into the US.

The Seller has been guaranteed a minimum price for the Lot, either by Bonhams or a third party. This may take the form of an irrevocable bid by a third party, who may make a financial claim on a successful Sale or a financial loss if unsuccessful.

Bonhams owns the Lot either wholly or partially or may otherwise have an economic interest.

This lot contains or is made of ivory. The United States Government has banned the import of ivory into the USA.

22. The Language
The Notice to Bidders is published in both Chinese and English. If there is any dispute in its interpretation, the English version will prevail.

CONTRACT FOR SALE

IMPORTANT: These terms may be changed in advance of the date of this Contract or, by the setting out of different terms in the Catalogue for the Sale and/or by placing an insert in the Catalogue and/or by notices at the Sale venue and/or by oral announcement at the Sale and during the Sale venue. You should be alert to this possibility of changes and ask in advance of biding if there have been any.

UNDER THIS CONTRACT, THE SELLER’S LIABILITY IN RESPECT OF THE QUALITY OF THE LOT, ITS FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE AND ITS CONFORMITY WITH ANY DESCRIPTION IS LIMITED. YOU ARE STRONGLY ADVISED TO EXAMINE THE LOT FOR YOURSELF AND/OR OBTAIN AN INDEPENDENT EXAMINATION OF IT BEFORE YOU BUY IT.

1 THE CONTRACT

1.1 These terms govern the Contract for Sale of the Lot by the Seller to the Buyer.

1.2 The Definitions and Glossary contained in Appendix 3 in the Catalogue are incorporated into the Contract for Sale and a separate copy can also be provided by Bonhams on request.

Where words and phrases are used which are in the List of Definitions in it, they are printed in italics.

1.3 Seller sells the Lot as the principal to the Contractor for Sale, such contract being made between the Seller and you through Bonhams which acts in the sole capacity as the Seller’s agent and not as an additional principal.

However, if the Catalogue states that Bonhams sells the Lot as principal, or such a statement is made by an announcement by the Auctioneer, or by a notice at the Sale, or an insert in the Catalogue, then Bonhams is the Seller for the purposes of this agreement.

1.4 The contract is made on the striking of the Auctioneer’s hammer in respect of the Lot when it is knocked down to you.

2 SELLER’S UNDERTAKINGS

2.1 The Seller undertakes to you that:

2.1.1 The Seller is the owner of the Lot or is duly authorised to sell the Lot by the owner;

2.1.2 save as disclosed in the Entry for the Lot in the Catalogue, the Seller sells the Lot with full title guarantee or, where the Seller is an executor, trustee, liquidator, receiver or administrator, with whatever right, title or interest he may have in the Lot;

2.1.3 except where the Seller is by an executor, trustee, liquidator, receiver or administrator the Seller is both legally entitled to sell the Lot, and legally capable of conferring on you quiet possession of the Lot;

2.1.4 the Seller has complied with all requirements, legal or otherwise, relating to any export or import of the Lot, and all duties and Taxes in respect of the export or import of the Lot have (unless stated to the contrary in the Catalogue or announced by the Auctioneer) been paid and, so far as the Seller is aware, all third parties have complied with such requirements in the past;

2.1.5 subject to any alterations expressly identified as such by a notice at the Sale venue or by the Notice to Bidders or by an insert in the Catalogue, the Lot corresponds with the Front cover Description of the Lot, being that part of the Entry about the Lot in the Catalogue which is in bold letters and (except for colour) with any photograph of the Lot in the Catalogue and the contents of any Condition Report which has been provided to the Buyer.

3 DESCRIPTIONS OF THE LOT

Paragraph 2.1.5 sets out what is the Contractual Description of the Lot. In particular, the Lot is not sold as corresponding with that part of the Entry which is not printed in bold letters, which merely sets out (on the Seller’s behalf) Bonhams’ opinion about the Lot and which is not part of the Contractual Description upon which the Lot is sold. Any statement or representation other than that part of the Entry referred to in paragraph 2.1.5 (together with any alteration to it as referred to in paragraph 2.1.5), including any Description or Estimate, whether made orally or in writing, including in the Catalogue or on Bonhams’ Website, is made at Bonhams’ own risk, and so far as the Seller is aware, all third parties have complied with any requirements in such statement or representation.

3.1 Except as provided in paragraph 2.1.5, the Seller does not make or give and does not agree to make or give any contractual promise, undertaking, obligation, guarantee, warranty, or representation of fact, or undertake any duty of care, in relation to any Description of the Lot or any Estimate in relation to it, nor of the accuracy or completeness of any Description or Estimate which may have been made by or on behalf of the Seller including by Bonhams. No such Description or Estimate is incorporated into this Contract for Sale.

4 FITNESS FOR PURPOSE AND SATISFACTORY QUALITY

The Seller does not make and does not agree to make any contractual promise, undertaking, obligation, guarantee, warranty, or representation of fact, or undertake any duty of care, in relation to any Description of the Lot or any Estimate in relation to it, nor of the accuracy or completeness of any Description or Estimate which may have been made by or on behalf of the Seller including by Bonhams. No such Description or Estimate is incorporated into this Contract for Sale.

5 RISK, PROPERTY AND TITLE

Risk in the Lot passes to you when it is knocked down to you on the fall of the Auctioneers hammer in respect of the Lot. The Seller will not be responsible thereafter for the Lot prior to your collecting it from Bonhams or the Storage Contractor, with whom you have separate contract(s) as Buyer(s). You will indemnify the Seller and keep the Seller fully indemnified from and against all claims, proceedings, costs, expenses and losses arising in respect of any injury, loss and damage caused to the Lot after the fall of the Auctioneer’s hammer until you obtain full title to it.

Title to the Lot remains in and is retained by the Seller until the Purchase Price and all other sums payable by you to Bonhams in relation to the Lot have been paid in full, and received in cleared funds by Bonhams.

6 PAYMENT

Your obligation to pay the Purchase Price arises when the Lot is knocked down to you on the fall of the Auctioneer’s hammer in respect of the Lot.

Time will be of the essence in relation to payment of the Purchase Price and all other sums payable by you to Bonhams. Unless agreed in writing with you by Bonhams or on the Seller’s behalf (in which case you must comply with the terms of that agreement), all such sums must be paid to Bonhams by you in the currency in which the Sale was conducted by not later than 4.30pm on the second working day following the Sale and you must ensure that the funds are cleared by the seventh working day after the Sale. Unless agreed by you in writing, if you do not pay any sums due in accordance with this paragraph, the Seller will have the rights set out in paragraph 6 below.

7 COLLECTION OF THE LOT

Unless otherwise agreed in writing with you by Bonhams, the Lot will be released to you or to your order only when Bonhams has received cleared funds to the full Purchase Price and all other sums owed by you to the Seller and to Bonhams.

The Seller is entitled to withhold possession from you of any other Lot he has sold to you at the same or at any other Sale and whether currently or previously in the possession of Bonhams and whether made prior to or on the Fall of the Auctioneer’s hammer in respect of the Lot sold.

You will be wholly responsible for packing, handling and transport of the Lot on collection and for complying with all import or export regulations in connection with the Lot.

You will be wholly responsible for any removal, storage or other charges or expenses incurred by the Seller if you do not remove the Lot in accordance with this paragraph 7 and will indemnify the Seller against all charges, costs, including any legal costs and fees, expenses and losses suffered by the Seller by reason of your failure to remove the Lot including any charges due under any Storage Contract. All such sums due to the Seller will be payable on demand.

8 FAILURE TO PAY FOR THE LOT

If the Purchase Price for a Lot is not paid to Bonhams in full in accordance with the Contract for Sale the Seller will be entitled, with the prior written agreement of Bonhams but without further notice to you, to exercise one or more of the following rights (whether through Bonhams or otherwise):

8.1.1 to terminate immediately the Contract for Sale of the Lot for your breach of contract;

8.1.2 to re-sell the Lot by auction, private treaty or any other means on giving seven days’ written notice to you of its intention to resell;

8.1.7 to repossess the Lot (or any part thereof) which has not become your property, and for this purpose you hereby grant a non-exclusive licence to the Seller by himself and to his servants or agents to enter upon all or any of your premises (with or without vehicles) during normal Business hours to take possession of the Lot or part thereof;

8.1.8 to retain possession of any other property sold to you by the Seller at the Sale or any other auction or by private treaty until all sums due under the Contract for Sale shall have been paid in full in cleared funds;

8.1.9 to retain possession of any property sold to you by the Buyer at the Sale or any other auction or by private treaty until all sums due under the Contract for Sale shall have been paid in full in cleared funds;

8.1.10 so long as such goods remain in the possession of the Seller or Contractor from you of any other Lot (whether made before or after this agreement or otherwise) and whether made prior to or on the Fall of the Auctioneer’s hammer in respect of the Lot sold.

9.2 Subject to paragraphs 9.3 to 9.5 below, except (i) fraud, or (ii) the Seller’s or Contractor’s or any of its officers, employees or agents’ negligence, other tort, breach of contract or any other lack of conformity with, or inaccuracy, error, misrepresentation, misleading statement or concealment of fact in relation to the Lot or any description of the Lot or to the Seller’s description of the Lot or to the Contractor’s description of the Lot or to any performance by the Seller of its express undertaking provided for in this agreement or to the Contractor’s performance of any of his obligations under this agreement, or to the Contractor’s failure to operate as a waiver of his rights under it.

9.3 Subject to paragraphs 9.4 and 9.5 below, if the Seller or Contractor is in breach of any of the express undertakings provided for in this agreement, the Buyer will be entitled to rescind this agreement and to take back the Lot.

9.6 Nothing set out in paragraphs 9.1 to 9.5 above or in any other provision of these conditions shall be deemed to restrict or limit in any way the Buyer’s rights or remedies in respect of (i) fraud, or (ii) the Seller’s or Contractor’s or any of its officers, employees or agents’ negligence, other tort, breach of contract or any other lack of conformity with, or inaccuracy, error, misrepresentation, misleading statement or concealment of fact in relation to the Lot or any description of the Lot or to the Seller’s description of the Lot or to the Contractor’s description of the Lot or to any performance by the Seller of its express undertaking provided for in this agreement or to the Contractor’s performance of any of his obligations under this agreement, or to the Contractor’s failure to operate as a waiver of his rights under it. In any event, the Buyer’s liability will be limited to damages of any kind, irrespective in any case of any negligence, other tort, breach of contract or any other lack of conformity with, or inaccuracy, error, misrepresentation, misleading statement or concealment of fact in relation to the Lot or any description of the Lot or to the Seller’s description of the Lot or to the Contractor’s description of the Lot or to any performance by the Seller of its express undertaking provided for in this agreement or to the Contractor’s performance of any of his obligations under this agreement, or to the Contractor’s failure to operate as a waiver of his rights under it.
so long as such goods remain in the possession of the Seller or Bonhams as its bailee, to rescind the contract for the Sale of any other goods sold to you by the Seller at the Sale or at any other auction or by private treaty and apply any monies received from you in respect of such goods in part or full satisfaction of any amounts owed to the Seller or to Bonhams by you.

You agree to indemnify the Seller against all legal and other costs of enforcement, all losses and other expenses and costs including any monies payable to Bonhams in order to obtain the release of the Lot incurred by the Seller (whether or not court proceedings will have been issued as a result of Bonhams taking steps under this paragraph 8.1 on a full indemnity basis together with interest thereon (after as well as before judgement or order) at the Specified in paragraph B.1.6 from the date upon which the Seller becomes liable to pay the same until payment by you.
