CHÂTEAU CALON-SÉGUR 2000

St-Estèphe 3me Cru Classé (3 lightly scuffed labels) 5 bottles

"Musky aromas of tart red berries, smoke and meat, with a light medicinal nuance. Suave on entry, then rather tightly wound, even a bit youthfully dry. Fairly rich wine, but the redcurrant, smoke and spice flavors are presently dominated by solid underlying structure. Finishes firmly tannic, with sneaky persistence." (90+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

$450 - 550

CHÂTEAU LYNCH-BAGES 2000

Pauillac 5me Cru Classé

(1 lightly bin-soiled and 2 bin-soiled labels, 2 scuffed capsules) owc

1 dozen bottles

"Knockout aromas of blackcurrant, blackberry, mocha and cedar complicated by scorched earth and tobacco. Big, ripe and dense, with flavors similar to the aromas and a seamless, rich texture. Though powerful and rich, with a sensual mouthfeel, it maintains a graceful, light-on-its-feet quality. Finishes with ripe, fine-grained tannins and excellent length. Still an infant, but clearly a great vintage for this property." (94+pts lan D'Agata, Vinous, Jan 2012)

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX 2000

Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé (1 nicked, 2 lightly scuffed and 1 lightly bin-soiled labels) 1 dozen bottles

"Tasted blind, the 2000 Chateau Margaux was a reminder of the peaks that the millennial vintage could reach. Noticeably deep in color, the bouquet rivets you to the seat with copious red berry fruit, clove and truffle, hints of cedar emerging with time. As the aromatics open and aerate, the fruit profile seems to darken and manifests blackcurrants and bilberries. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin. There is immense depth and symmetry conveyed by this First Growth, quite masculine for the estate with a gentle but insistent grip. It is a brilliant wine that flirts with perfection. Afford it another 3-4 years if you can, because it will last decades." (99pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #229, Feb 2017)

$8,500 - 12,000

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX 2000

Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé (5 lightly scuffed labels) 8 bottles

$5,500 - 7,500

CHÂTEAU MONTROSE 2000 St-Estèphe 2me Cru Classé

(1 nicked, 2 lightly scuffed and 4 scuffed labels) 6 bottles

"Roasted, smoky aromas of blackberry, blueberry and licorice. Plush, dense and large-scaled; expands impressively in the mouth. Chocolatey-ripe but kept fresh by nicely integrated acidity. Offers lovely sweetness without going over the top. Finishes with big, dusty, horizontal tannins and lovely aromatic persistence. Offers extraordinary texture and depth of flavor for a wine with just 12.8% alcohol." (94pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

$800 - 1,100

11

CHÂTEAU PAVIE 2000

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A (1 lightly nicked and 2 lightly bin-soiled labels, different importers) 1 dozen bottles

"Knockout nose of blackberry, espresso, licorice, minerals and burnished oak; offers terrific verve and clarity for a wine so ripe and rich. Then extremely youthful on the palate, with tightly wound flavors and great inner-mouth energy. Brilliant black fruit and mineral flavors offer compelling perfume. This is still remarkably primary despite its long elevage (the wine was bottled just three weeks prior to my tasting). Finishes with great tactile, chewy persistence. An outstanding vintage for this property." (95pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

$4,800 - 6,000

CHÂTEAU PAVIE 2000

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A (1 lightly scuffed and 2 nicked labels, different importers) 7 bottles

$2.800 - 3.800

13

CHÂTEAU PAVIE DECESSE 2000

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru (1 nicked, 2 lightly scuffed and 4 lightly nicked labels) 8 bottles

"Explosive aroma of roasted black cherry. Dense, highly concentrated and deep, with penetrating, palate-saturating flavors of blackberry and black cherry framed by firm underlying minerality. A wine of great force; despite its major ripeness, there's also a cool, medicinal aspect that's utterly refreshing. Finishes with big, broad tannins and outstanding length." (93pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

$800 - 1,100

CHÂTEAU PAVIE MACQUIN 2000

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé B (different importers) 9 bottles

"Candied violet, cherry cola, almond paste and savory herbs on the expressive nose. Smooth and suave on entry, then lively and bright in the middle, delivering opulent red cherry, mineral and floral flavors of uncommon purity and poise. Outstanding length and balance on the perfumed, seamless finish. Another standout wine by Thienpont and Derenoncourt. Surprisingly drinkable already but has the stuffing to age and improve for at least another 15 years." (93pts Ian D'Agata, Vinous, March 2014)

$800 - 1,100

DOMAINE DE CHEVALIER BLANC 2001

Pessac-Léognan
(2 lightly scuffed and 3 lightly bin-soiled labels)
owc.

1 dozen bottles

"Sweet, supple and fat, with ripe, soft flavors of white peach, mirabelle, pineapple, liquid stone and vanilla. Distinctly rounder and broader, if less precise, than the '02; in a creamier, more enveloping style and rather oaky today. I suspect this is more sharply delineated than it's showing now." (91-92pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

$700 - 900

16

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM 1999

Sauternes 1er Cru Supérieur (1 lightly bin-soiled label) 8 bottles

$1,200 - 1,500

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM 2001

Sauternes 1er Cru Supérieur (1 lightly bin-soiled label, different importers) 2 bottles

"It seems to be aging at a glacial pace, hardly changed since I last tasted it. The nose is like the throbbing engine of an Aston Martin Vantage, ready to go. It is so packed with intensity, perhaps a little more resinous than I recall, but with almost crystalline delineation. The palate is perfectly balanced and laden with botrytis, not as unctuous or as rich as say, the 2009 d'Yquem, yet with heavenly focus and a crescendo of flavors that take your breath away: acacia honey, yellow plum, white peach and orange sorbet. The startling thing is ... this is just the opening act." (100pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

$800 - 1,100

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM 2001

Sauternes 1er Cru Supérieur (2 lightly bin-soiled and 3 bin-soiled labels) 6 half-bottles

$1,300 - 1,700

19 CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM 2005

Sauternes 1er Cru Supérieur (1 lightly nicked and 6 lightly bin-soiled labels, 2-light honey color, different importers) 15 half-bottles

"...with hints of white chocolate and crème brûlée just appearing on the finish. This needs another decade, but it is a very serious Yquem in the making." (96pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #225, June 2016)

$1,600 - 2,000

JOSEPH PHELPS INSIGNIA 1997 (12)

(6 slight signs of seepage due to overfill) JOSEPH PHELPS INSIGNIA 1997 (12)

(6 slight signs of seepage due to overfill)

2 ocb

2 dozen bottles

"An inky/plum/purple color is accompanied by a stunning bouquet of violets, charcoal, creme de cassis and a hint of toast. Prodigious when it hits the palate with a full-bodied expansiveness, there is not a hard edge to be found in the 1997, only velvety tannins, compelling depth and fruit intensity, and stunning purity. It is a perfect expression of Napa viticulture and wine that should continue to age effortlessly for two decades or more." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #1113, Nov 2013)

$6,000 - 8,000

PENFOLDS GRANGE 1997

(1 nicked and 3 lightly wrinkled labels) 3 bottles

"The saturated purple-colored 1997 offers a gorgeously sweet nose of blackberry liqueur, cherries, camphor, chocolate, plums, and mocha. The wine is opulently-textured, extremely soft, layered, and seductive, with Grange's tell-tale personality well-displayed, but in a seamless, seductive style. This is a superb Grange that can hold its own against the more heralded 1996." (94pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #143, Oct 2002)

$850 - 1,200

PENFOLDS GRANGE 1998

(3 slightly depressed corks) 10 bottles

"A wine that flirts with perfection, and should rival the 1986 as one of the legendary Granges produced, the 1998 has one of the highest alcohol contents (nearly 15%) as well as one of the highest percentages of Shiraz in the blend (97%). Its stunning purple color is accompanied by exceptionally sweet aromas of blackberry liqueur intermixed with barbecue spices, an endearing, smoky earthiness, pepper, roasted meats, and coffee. Huge, massive, unctuously textured, and extraordinarily youthful, this impressive wine is a candidate for perfection. It should continue to evolve over the next three decades." (98+pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

$3.500 - 4.500

MORE FROM THE BAY COLLECTION, PULLED FROM PROFESSIONAL TEMPERATURE- AND HUMIDITY-CONTROLLED STORAGE IN THE BAY AREA.

23

ABREU RED 2013

Cappella ogb 3 bottles

"It displays sweet espresso notes, loads of white chocolate, blackberry, Asian spice and incense. It is full-bodied and opulent, with the tannins surprisingly silky and well-disguised, which is somewhat unusual in this vintage of extraordinary power and density. This is a 35- to 50-year wine." (96pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

$850 - 1,200

24

ABREU CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2013

Madrona Ranch ogb 3 bottles

"The 2013 Madrona Ranch hits the magic three-digit score. It is literally a 30- to 45-year wine in itself. It behaves like a ripe, complex first growth Pauillac, with blackberry and crème de cassis, a touch of licorice, black truffle, pen ink and graphite. Incredibly fragrant, extremely full-bodied, with abundant tannin but also enormous fruit extract and richness, it is an amazing wine and a profound effort from Abreu and Grimes." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

$900 - 1,200

25

BRYANT FAMILY VINEYARD RED 2015

DB4

3 bottles

"Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, the 2015 Proprietary Red DB4 is redolent of kirsch, mulberries, warm plums and black raspberries with suggestions of baking spices and dusty earth. Medium to full-bodied, soft, open and just about ready for business, the spicy red and black fruit preserves flavors are textured by plush tannins, and it finishes on a peppery note." (90-92pts Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #233, Oct 2017)

$350 - 450

COLGIN RED 2014

Cariad owb 6 bottles

"This wine offers loads of unsmoked cigar tobacco, melted licorice, charcoal embers, blackberry and mulberry fruit, a full-bodied mouthfeel, stunning intensity, impressive equilibrium, and well-integrated acidity and tannin. It is another beauty, obviously coming from first-growth terroirs. This should drink beautifully for 20-25 years." (96pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

$1,800 - 2,500

$600 - 800

DANA ESTATES CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2014

Onda 2 bottles

"The 2014 Onda, from Dana's Crystal Springs vineyard, is a very beautiful wine. Bright red stone fruit and lifted, floral aromatics are the two main signatures. At the same time, the 2014 has plenty of depth. Chocolate, raspberry jam, mint and rose petal notes infuse the deep, fleshy finish. This is a striking, modern Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon endowed with real class and pedigree. This is a very serious second wine, if it can be called that." (94pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2016)

$300 - 400

FAIRCHILD ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2015

GIII

(owc-cord cut for inspection)

OWC

3 bottles

"Larry Fairchild's 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon G III is terrific. In this vintage, the G III captures the distinctly earthy, savory notes of this site, but also offers a bit more fruit density and textural finesse than has sometimes been the case. Readers should expect a full-bodied, powerful Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. There is so much to like." (94pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, March 2018)

$400 - 500

30

FAIRCHILD ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2014

Sigaro

(owc-cord cut for inspection)

OWC

3 bottles

"The 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Sigaro is one of the more sumptuous wines in this range. Dark red and purplish fruit make a strong first impression. Even with all of its intensity, the 2014 is silky and polished enough to drink with just a few years of cellaring. Chocolate, torrefaction and dark spice wrap around the super-ripe finish." (93pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2016)

$400 - 500

31

FAIRCHILD ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2014

Stones No. 2, Perranus Block 1

3 bottles

"The 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Stones No. 2 is another drop-dead gorgeous beauty from Larry Fairchild. Rich, sumptuous and exquisitely layered, the 2014 has it all going on. Bright red stone fruit, silky tannins and expressive floral overtones all give the 2014 sensuality to match its power. Layers of fruit build to the huge, layered finish." (96pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2016)

$750 - 950

33

KAMEN ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2014

Moon Mountain District
1 dozen bottles

"Blueberry and blackberry fruit, forest floor, dusty/loamy notes, roasted herbs and meats all jump from the glass of this opaque purple wine. It's dense, rich and built for long-term cellaring, this wine can be approached now because it is a 2014, but likely will evolve for 25-30 or more years." (96+pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #228, Dec 2016)

$600 - 800

LARKMEAD CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2015

Napa Valley 6 bottles

"Larkmead's deep garnet-purple colored 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon shows a meaty/earthy nose of charcuterie, underbrush, damp soil and mossy bark with a core of cassis, black plums and espresso. Concentrated and rich in the full-bodied mouth, the tannins are firm and chewy, and it finishes with great length and depth." (93pts Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #233, Oct 2017)

$480 - 600

LARKMEAD RED 2015

LARKMEAD RED 2013

The Lark 6 bottles

"Dark red and black fruit, smoke, licorice and dark spices are pushed forward. In this lineup, The Lark stands out for its exceptional purity, density and overall richness, all of which come through in a dark, brooding expression of Cabernet Sauvignon." (97pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Oct 2015)

$1,500 - 2,000

37

LOKOYA CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2014

Mt. Veeder owc 3 bottles

"The wine has the telltale signs of Mt. Veeder – blackberry and blueberry fruit infused with considerable floral nuances. This wine has all that, then hits the palate with a cascade of glycerin, fruit extraction, and layers of blackberry and blueberry fruit. It is full-bodied and opulent, but finishes with some structure and ripe tannin. This is a magnificent wine – full-throttle, extremely pure, and incredibly well-balanced. Give it 5-6 years of bottle age and drink it over the following three decades." (99pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

$650 - 850

PAHLMEYER CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2013

Piece de Resistance owc

1 magnum

"The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Piece de Resistance is deep, powerful and unctuous. Red cherry jam, pomegranate, bittersweet chocolate, French oak, mint, licorice and rose petal notes infuse a rich, silky wine endowed with tremendous depth. The new French oak shapes the wine, but is also very nicely balanced. Unlike most 2013s, this flamboyant, opulent Cabernet Sauvignon will drink well with minimal cellaring, although it will certainly be more complex with time in bottle." (94pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2016)

$500 - 700

PAHLMEYER CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2013

Raison d'Etre

OWC

3 bottles

"Crème de cassis, menthol, licorice, lavender and spice notes emerge from the 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Raison d'Etre. Inky, powerful and voluptuous, the 2013 captures all the best qualities of the Pahlmeyer style. Even with all of its obvious concentration, the 2013 preserves a good deal of freshness and plenty of mountain tannin. This is a terrific showing." (95pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2016)

SCARECROW CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2015

3 bottles

"Produced from 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon leaps from the glass with gorgeous floral notes of red roses and lilacs over a core of black and red cherries, crushed black currants and baking spices plus hints of iron ore and dusty earth. The voluptuous, rounded, soft and sexy fruit slinks across the palate with incredible seamlessness and expression. Make no mistake, it is full-bodied and decadently powerful, but with a myriad of aromatic nuances, finishing long, layered and boldly perfumed." Asterisk owc 3 bottles

"A gorgeous second wine, the 2014 Asterisk has a lot to offer. Succulent red cherry, plum and pomegranate fruit give the wine much of its racy personality. In 2014, the Asterisk has terrific energy and brightness, with pretty floral and savory notes that add perfume. There is so much grace and class here..." (93pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, March 2018)

TURNBULL RESERVE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2015

Oakville

(1 scuffed capsule)

"Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Oakville Reserve has a baked black cherries, black berries and wild blueberries-scented nose with hints of lavender, pencil shavings and earth plus a touch of cloves. The palate is full-bodied and bursting with black berry and earthy flavors, supported by soft, rounded tannins and finishing with a hint of pepper." $300 - 400

VENGE VINEYARDS CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2015

Bone Ash Vineyard 6 bottles

"Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Bone Ash Vineyard has a crushed black currants, red currants and plums-scented nose with hints of kirsch, pencil shavings, dried herbs and spice box. The full-bodied palate is firm and grainy with fresh and vibrant black fruit and earthy layers lingering long into the finish." (94pts Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #234, Dec 2017)

VENGE VINEYARDS CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2015

"Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Silencieux offers up baked blackberries and mulberries on the nose with stewed plums, sautéed herbs, damp soil and tree bark plus a waft of unsmoked cigars. Medium to full-bodied, it's rounded and soft in the mouth with plenty of juicy fruit and good persistence." (91pts Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #234, Dec 2017)

$300 - 400

47 VÉRITÉ RED 2014

La Muse owc 3 bottles

"A huge, opulent wine, the 2014 La Muse wraps around the palate with tons of super-ripe dark red fruit, chocolate, spice and menthol. La Muse often shuts down after bottling, but the 2014 is still remarkably intense and voluptuous, with soft contours, silky tannins and exceptional balance. The purity of the flavors here is remarkable." (96pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, March 2017)

Bearwallow Vineyard

1 dozen bottles

"The 2015 Pinot Noir Bearwallow Vineyard is a total knock-out. Rich, explosive and forward, the 2015 possesses striking fruit intensity and purity in every dimension. Dark red and bluish-hued fruits and ripe, silky tannins add to the wine's immediacy. This is an especially plush style for Rhys, but it works beautifully. The 2015 will be even better in another few years, but it will prove virtually impossible to resist young." (94pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Aug 2017)

"A powerful wine that bears the stamp of the vintage, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon offers up aromas of minty crème de cassis, blackberries, dark chocolate and spice, framed by a lavish application of toasty new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and heady, with a generous core of ripe, liqueur-like fruit, a fine-grained chassis of tannins and a long, heavily oak-inflected finish." ## CHARLES HEIDSIECK VINTAGE CHAMPAGNE 1985

Cuvée Champagne Charlie individual ogb 5 bottles

"Spicy, rich nose combines lime skin, grilled nuts, roasted corn, toffee, coffee and mushroom. Fresh, rich and concentrated, with intriguing flavors of almond, macadamia nut and toffee and lovely vinosity. Ripe, chewy and strong in extract, with a fairly full dosage and a suggestion of orange oil. Finishes ripe and very long; really clings to the palate. Like a very complex white wine with bubbles." ## KRUG VINTAGE CHAMPAGNE 1995

Brut

(1 nicked label) 2 bottles

"The 1995 Vintage provides a fascinating contrast to the 1996. This is a tightly wound, sinewy Champagne loaded with brioche, toasted oak, lemon rind, flowers and minerals. The mousse is extremely fine and the style decidedly more linear and fresh than the 1996. Though deceptively medium-bodied in style, the wine appears to be built for extended cellaring." Comtes de Champagne 4 bottles

"A total turn-on, the 1995 Comtes de Champagne is utterly magnificent. Orange marmalade, mint, smoke, hazelnuts, white truffles and honey blossom come to life in an exquisite, resonant Champagne that delivers the goods, big time. Opulent and exotic yet miraculously fresh for a 20 year-old wine, the 1995 Comtes is in a beautiful spot to deliver maximum drinking pleasure. With time in the glass, the 1995 becomes even more finessed." (96pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, July 2015)

Comtes de Champagne Rosé (2 lightly nicked labels) 5 bottles

"Pale silvery-pink color, with an energetic, frothy mousse. Restrained and understated on the nose, with delicate strawberry and raspberry aromas accented by fresh rose and rhubarb. Silky-smooth on the palate, with flavors of wild strawberry and fresh cranberry kissed by cinnamon spice. This is quite young but promises to be another wonderful bottle of Champagne. The finish is fine-grained, precise and very long." (93pts Josh Raynolds, Vinous, Nov 2005)

CHÂTEAU ANGÉLUS 1989

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A 6 bottles

"...this particular offering, which was about 50% Cabernet Franc and the rest Merlot, has a dark plum/purple color, but is still quite youthful. A beautiful sweet blueberry and blackberry-scented nose of olive, licorice and cedar wood is followed by a full-bodied and opulent wine, with hints of espresso roast and chocolate as well." ## CHÂTEAU ANGÉLUS 2000

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A 4 bottles

"Approaching perfection, this wine is inky, bluish/purple-colored to the rim, offering up notes of incense, blueberry and blackberry liqueur, licorice, graphite and spring flowers. A touch of roasted espresso bean is also present. The wine has great concentration, a magnificent, full-bodied mouthfeel, stunning purity, and well-integrated acidity, tannin, alcohol and wood. This beauty seems to be in midadolescence with at least 25-30 years of life ahead." (99pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #220, Aug 2015)

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé B (2 nicked, 8 lightly scuffed and 10 glue-stained labels, 1 slightly depressed cork)

OWC

10 bottles

"One of the most singular Bordeaux I have ever tasted, it verges on being port-like, but it pulls back because of the extraordinary minerality and laser-like focus. The wine is massively concentrated, still black/purple-hued to the rim, and offers a nose of incense, blackberries, blueberry liqueur, acacia flowers, and forest floor. It reveals low acidity and high tannins, which are largely concealed by the sheer concentration and lavish glycerin the wine possesses. Aging at a glacial pace, it is approachable, but it will not hit its peak until 2020; it should last for twenty years thereafter." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

CHÂTEAU HAUT-BRION 1989

Graves 1er Grand Cru Classé (1 lightly scuffed label different importers) 2 bottles

"A modern-day version of the epic 1959, the 1989 Haut-Brion is all about harmony. Fine, silky tannins and expressive aromatics are two of the signatures. Tobacco, cedar and anise add layers of nuance to the dark, mineral-inflected fruit. The 1989 has long been one of my favorite Haut-Brions. It is once again magnificent in this tasting. The linkage with 1959 is quite evident. Readers who are fortunate enough to own the 1989 will be thrilled to follow its evolution over the next few decades." ## CHÂTEAU HAUT-BRION 2000

Graves 1er Grand Cru Classé (1 stained and 3 heavily scuffed labels) 3 bottles

"...I was not surprised to find the 2000 Château Haut-Brion flirting with perfection. The nose is simply breathtaking - quintessential Haut-Brion with ebullient red berry fruit, roasted herbs, gravel, terracotta tiles on a warm summer's day...it is simply wave after wave of intoxicating scents that could bring even the most stoic person to tears of joy. The palate displays heavenly balance, pitch-perfect acidity, perhaps spicier than previous bottles that I have tasted, and what depth and dimension in this outstanding wine. That hint of graphite on the finish is a cheeky nod to Pauillac, as if to thumb its nose at the First Growths, because alongside Château Latour, almost by stealth, the Haut-Brion is one of the greatest Bordeaux in this millennial year." Pomerol

(6 lightly scuffed labels) 6 bottles

"... it has that beguiling bouquet of melted black fruit, sage, undergrowth and hints of bacon fat, like a wagging finger inviting you inside. The palate is smooth and harmonious, a mixture of red and black fruit that seem to revel on the precocity of the growing season, even though it was now 27 years ago. It is a voluminous, mouth-filling Pomerol, but not extravagant, flamboyant for sure and yet never betraying its roots. It's just a wonderful La Conseillante, a thoroughbred Pomerol that puts a smile on your face." (96pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate, July 2016)

CHÂTEAU LA MISSION HAUT-BRION 1982

Graves Cru Classé (lightly scuffed label)

1 hottle

"... it has a gorgeous bouquet that is very well defined, with dark berry fruit, potpourri and a hint of brine. It feels a little backward at first yet soon opens up, the fruit gaining more and more intensity until peaking at around 30-40 minutes. The palate displays firm structure on the entry, quite masculine with good grip. There is a fine, earthy character to this La Mission along with class and focus." ## 72 CHÂTEAU LA MISSION HAUT-BRION 1989 Graves Cru Classé 9 bottles

"Even from barrel the seamless 1989 La Mission revealed a special elixir aspect, tasting like it had been designed by Chanel. It still possesses a blue/purple color with only a hint of garnet creeping in, and the explosive aromatics offer up notes of licorice, creme de cassis, blueberry liqueur, smoky barbecue meats, truffles and graphite. If that's not enough to get one salivating, the palate has never disappointed either. Full-bodied with extraordinary opulence as well as sweet, well-integrated, velvety tannins, this fresh, lively, blockbuster La Mission appears to be one of those rare wines that never goes through a closed, unfriendly stage. It has been a compelling, multidimensional effort from barrel, in its infancy, and as it heads into late adolescence. A remarkable tour de force in winemaking, it is one of the all-time profound La Mission-Haut-Brions." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #202, Aug 2012)

CHÂTEAU LA MISSION HAUT-BRION 2000

Graves Cru Classé 3 bottles

"One of the wines of the vintage, the 2000 has barely budged in its evolution since it was bottled and released in 2002. After ten years in bottle, it still reveals a dense opaque purple color along with a potentially sensational bouquet of blueberries, black currants, graphite, asphalt and background oak. Extremely powerful, full-bodied and superbly concentrated with good acidity and high but round tannins, this massive La Mission-Haut-Brion should take its place among this estate's most hallowed vintages when it hits full maturity in another one to two decades. I was surprised by just how youthful this wine tasted at age 12. If tasted blind, I would have guessed it to be around 4 to 5 years old." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #202, Aug 2012)

CHÂTEAU LAFITE-ROTHSCHILD 1988

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (1 bin-soiled label) 3 bottles

"Broodingly backward and in need of considerable bottle age, the 1988 is a classic expression of Lafite. This deeply-colored wine exhibits the tell-tale Lafite bouquet of cedar, subtle herbs, dried pit fruits, minerals, and cassis. Extremely concentrated, with brilliantly focused flavors and huge tannins, this backward, yet impressively endowed Lafite-Rothschild may well turn out to be the wine of the vintage!" ## CHÂTEAU LAFITE-ROTHSCHILD 1990

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé 1 bottle

"The 1990 Lafite has turned out far better than my early assessment. While it still possesses some firmness, and performs like a late adolescent in terms of its evolution, it boasts gorgeous aromas of cedar, tobacco leaf, cassis, and lead pencil shavings. The explosive aromas are followed by a fleshy, full-bodied wine that should hit its peak in 5-8 years, and last for 25-30 more." (96pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

CHÂTEAU LAFITE-ROTHSCHILD 2000

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé 1 dozen bottles

"A blend of 93.3% Cabernet Sauvignon and the rest Merlot, the wine still has a dark ruby/purple color and an extraordinarily youthful nose of graphite, black currants, sweet, unsmoked cigar tobacco, and flowers. The wine is rich, medium to full-bodied, but has that ethereal elegance and purity that is always Lafite. I originally predicted that it would first reach maturity in 2011, but I would push that back by 5-7 years now, although it has 50-60 years of life in front of it." ## CHÂTEAU LAFITE-ROTHSCHILD 2003

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé 3 bottles

"The 2003 Lafite Rothschild comes as close to perfection as any of the great Lafites made over the past three decades (1982, 1986, 1996, 2000, 2005, 2008, 2009 and 2010). This sensational effort came in at 12.7% natural alcohol, it is made in the style of one of this estate's great classics, the 1959. Composed of 86% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot, it exhibits a dense ruby/purple color to the rim along with a luxurious bouquet of cedarwood, lead pencil shaving, white chocolate, cocoa and cassis. Fat, rich, opulent and full-bodied with low acidity and stunning seductiveness and complexity, this noble wine possesses a bountiful, generous, heady style. It is just coming into its plateau of maturity where it should hold for 20-25 years. This is one of the candidates for the wine of the vintage – make no mistake about that." ## CHÂTEAU LATOUR 2000

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (1 lightly stained and 2 lightly scuffed labels) 6 bottles

"The extremely rich, black/purple color to the rim is followed by a wine with some subtle smoke, loads of minerals, a hint of vanilla, and plenty of creme de cassis as well as roasted meat and a slight scorched earth character. Broad, savory, and rich, the wine seems to be about 5 years away from full maturity and should drink well for at least 40-50 more years. A great effort, probably eclipsed only by 2003 and 2009." Pauillac 5me Cru Classé (6 stained labels) 6 bottles

"It is such a consistent wine, a Pauillac that never lets you down. Here it continues to sport a relatively backward blackberry and cedar scented nose, the graphite (pencil box) element a little more accentuated. The aromatic purr like a Bentley, unraveling with each swirl of the glass. The palate is very well defined with a rigid structure, well-judged acidity and hints of chestnut and cooked meat offering secondary notes on the dense finish that suggest a long drinking plateau. What a stupendous wine from Jean-Michel Cazes!" (95pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate, July 2016)

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX 1982

Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé (very top shoulder, lightly bin-soiled label, lightly oxidized capsule)

"The 1982 Château Margaux is a real stunner. An exotic, almost candied bouquet melds into sweet red-hued fruit in a voluptuous, racy Margaux endowed with magnificent purity. Large and ample on the palate, with silky tannins and translucent fruit, the 1982 is rich yet also miraculously seamless. All the elements are in the right place. I followed this bottle over several hours, during which it only improved. The 1982 won't last forever, but it will deliver thrilling drinking for up to another decade." $650 - 850

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX 2000

Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé (1 scuffed and 3 lightly scuffed labels) 6 bottles

"Noticeably deep in color, the bouquet rivets you to the seat with copious red berry fruit, clove and truffle, hints of cedar emerging with time. As the aromatics open and aerate, the fruit profile seems to darken and manifests blackcurrants and bilberries. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin. There is immense depth and symmetry conveyed by this First Growth, quite masculine for the estate with a gentle but insistent grip. It is a brilliant wine that flirts with perfection. Afford it another 3-4 years if you can, because it will last decades." (99pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #229, Feb 2017)

$3,800 - 4,800

CHÂTEAU MONTROSE 2000

St-Estèphe 2me Cru Classé (3 lightly scuffed labels) 3 bottles

"I afforded it a couple of hours in the glass and it responded with plenty of pure ripe blackberry and raspberry fruit, hints of cold slate and even charcoal emerging with time. The palate is not as complex as the aforementioned 2005, yet there is wonderful backbone and focus: towards the finish there is a sense of suppleness and refinement that might make this absolutely delicious in 5-7 years' time." (94+pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate, March 2017)

$350 - 450

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1982

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (base neck, lightly scuffed label) 1 bottle

"This wine remains one of the legends of Bordeaux. It has thrown off the backward, youthful style that existed during its first 25 years of life, and over the last 4-5 years has developed such secondary nuances as cedar and spice box. The creme de cassis, underlying floral note, full-bodied power, extraordinary purity, multilayered texture, and finish of over a minute are a showcase for what this Chateau accomplished in 1982. The wine is still amazingly youthful, vibrant, and pure. It appears capable of remaining fruity and vibrant in 2082!" (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

$800 - 1,100

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1986

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (base neck, lightly stained label, lightly oxidized capsule)

"It has a powerful and intense bouquet as always: exemplary graphite and cedar scents, a touch of black pepper and incense. It seems to unfurl in the glass, like a motor revving its engine. The palate is beautifully balanced with its trademark firm tannic structure, a Mouton-Rothschild with backbone and masculinity. Layers of black fruit intermingling with mint and graphite, a hint of licorice emanating from the Merlot, gently fanning out and my God, it is incredibly long. It is not like the 1985 Mouton-Rothschild that is so fleshy and generous. This is serious, aristocratic Mouton, a true vin de garde and yes, I do think drinkers will have to wait until it reaches its true peak. Sometimes that's just the way it is." ## CHÂTEAU PALMER 1983

Margaux 3me Cru Classé (glue-stained and lightly torn label) 1 bottle

"...this was the finest 1983 Château Palmer that I have encountered. The nose is ethereal with wonderful definition: mint-tinged red berry fruit, cedar, dried rose petals and very subtle acrid tang of a November bonfire. It is the definition and purity that is beguiling and yes, it is reminiscent of the 1961. The palate is beautifully balanced and lithe in the mouth. Like previous bottles, there is a Burgundy-like sensibility about this Palmer, sensual in the mouth with a crystalline finish that will have you reaching for the glass for another sip. Robert Parker stated that the 1983 was the best vintage following the epochal 1961 and I completely concur." (98pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate, May 2016)

$320 - 420

CHÂTEAU PALMER 1989

Margaux 3me Cru Classé (3 scuffed labels) 3 bottles

"... the 1989 Château Palmer has always been my favourite vintage from that decade after the 1983. The first bottle was unfortunately corked. The second was as it should be: the nose tensile with red berries, sous-bois, potpourri and strawberry pastille - lively and energetic. The palate is medium-bodied and vibrant right from the start, silky in texture with plenty of citrus fruit, gently building to a harmonious and detailed finish that lingers in the mouth. This is a magnificent Château Palmer that continues to effortlessly dish out so much vinous pleasure." (96pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate, May 2016)

CHÂTEAU PAVIE 2001

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A (1 scuffed label) 2 bottles

"... the 2001 Pavie has a slight lightening at the edge of its dark garnet/plum/purple color and a big, sweet kiss of cedar wood, incense, licorice, blackberry and lead pencil shavings. The wine is dense, very rich, multilayered and finishes with at least a 40- to 45-second aftertaste. This wine seems to be close to full maturity, but should hold there for easily another 15-20 years. It's a sleeper of the vintage." (96pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #220, Aug 2015)

CHÂTEAU PICHON-BARON 1989

Pauillac 2em Cru Classé (1 lightly scuffed label) 8 bottles

"Pure, classic Pauillac aromas of black cherry, bitter chocolate, menthol and flowers. Very intensely flavored, precise and penetrating, with an extremely primary flavor of cassis. Almost magically light on its feet owing to its rather strong acidity. A very young, extremely long wine with great tensile strength." (94+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, July 2002)

CHAMBOLLE-MUSIGNY 1993

Comte de Vogüé

1 dozen bottles

"As with all the de Vogüé '93s, this displays intense, pure but very tight fruit and focused, delineated and fine, medium weight flavors that offer impressive fruit/acid balance. Structured yet harmonious and this should continue to improve for another 5 to 7 years, perhaps longer. Few villages level wines successfully improve beyond 10 years but this will be one of them." #### CHAMBOLLE-MUSIGNY 1998

Comte de Vogüé 2 bottles

The austerity on the finish this showed young has been replaced by a velvety and delicious character and overall, this is now drinking perfectly." (90pts Allen Meadows, Burghound. com, July 2009)

"A beautifully complex mix of mostly secondary aromas with a touch of fresh primary fruit wrapped in spice and earth leads to rich if slightly edgy medium full, nicely punchy and powerful flavors that retain fine precision and length. L. Jadot

(1 lightly scuffed label)

3 bottles

"As one would expect from the '96 vintage at this point, the full, expressive, black fruit aromas remain entirely primary and lead to medium weight flavors of mouth coating richness and a fruit-driven complexity. This is still firmly tannic and the structural impression is accentuated by the bright, intense, indeed even vibrant acidity. I very much like the style of this because if though it is a touch awkward today, the excellent potential is evident." (92pts Allen Meadows, Burghound.com, Nov 2001)

97 CLOS VOUGEOT 1996

L. Jadot (1 lightly scuffed label) 3 bottles

"This saturated and dark colored wine, with its extraordinarily spicy nose of sweet red and black fruits, sent me soaring. This massive, intense, broad-shouldered, masculine, structured, and chewy wine is crammed with super-ripe, rich, and layered blackberries, cassis, licorice, earth, and Asian spices. As if that were not enough, its dense fruit comes roaring back after expectoration, lingering on the palate for nearly a minute. This is an extraordinary Clos Vougeot!" Ponsot (1 lightly torn label) 3 bottles

"In contrast to some of the Ponsot '96s the Clos de la Roche is reasonably good with lovely aromatic complexity on the fully mature yet still vibrant and fresh red berry fruit, spice, earth, game and smoke hints. There is acceptable density in the context of a vintage that produced any number of lighter wines and the old vines clearly show as the phenolic maturity of the remaining tannins is much better than the average '96, all wrapped in a delicious and solidly long finish that displays only a trace of acid tang." J. Rotv

(1 slightly depressed cork)

3 bottles

"The layered and still elegant nose reflects the remnants of soft wood notes framing beautifully pure and sappy old vine pinot fruit and delicious and relatively broad flavors that have excellent density in the context of what was not an especially concentrated vintage. This is very stylish juice and decidedly more elegant than either the '95 or the '97 TVV and reminiscent of the outstanding '93. I especially like the purity of expression as well as the extra level of ripeness conferred by the low yields as it gives a seductively textural impact on the palate. This should continue to enjoy a very long, and slow, evolution and while this could easily be drunk now with pleasure, I would suggest waiting another 2 to 3 years before attacking your bottles in earnest." ## ERMITAGE, L'ERMITE 1996

M. Chapoutier(scuffed label)1 bottle

"As granite as granite gets, with an almost liquid rock character that's almost impossible to find outside of Hermitage, the sensational 1996 Ermitage l'Ermite offers a complex array of ripe dark fruits, olive, game and graphite in a full-bodied, fresh, incredibly delineated and focused style. Massively concentrated, structured, and rich on the palate, yet as seamless as they come, enjoy this utterly heavenly wine over the coming two to three decades." ## CÔTE-RÔTIE, LA MOULINE 1997

E. Guigal
(lightly scuffed label)
1 bottle

"Deep, superripe nose dominated by chocolate and animal fur; could hardly be more different from the '98. Then sweeter, fatter and full-blown in the mouth, clearly the product of a very warm summer. Surprisingly complex for a wine this ripe, with superb depth of red cherry flavor. Wonderfully round, velvety and long." (93pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, Sept 2004)

CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE, CUVÉE RÉSERVÉE 2003

Domaine du Pégaü (lightly scuffed and stained label) 1 magnum

"Starting with the 2003 Chateauneuf du Pape Cuvee Reserve, this wine showed spectacularly on release, closed down for a few years, and has now emerged, at close to full maturity, and is straight-up fabulous. Out of the entire tasting, it remained my favorite. Giving up gorgeous blackberry, currants, garrigue, pepper and beef blood, it hits the palate with a massive, full-bodied texture that carries layers of sweet fruit, awesome concentration and blockbuster length. Tasting like the essence of both this estate and the terroir, it's an incredible wine that I'm happy to taste/drink anytime. It will continue to evolve gracefully, but I see no reason to delay gratification." (98pts Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate #214, Aug 2014)

CÔTE-RÔTIE, CÔTE BLONDE 1998

R. Rostaina

(1 nicked and 2 lightly stained labels, 1 slightly depressed cork) 2 bottles

"A masculine, ripe expression of Côte Rôtie, the 1998 Côte Rôtie Côte Blonde offers up tons of blackberry and cassis fruit to go with notions of smoked meats, iron and earth. Hitting the palate with blockbuster levels of concentration and a voluptuous, sexy texture, it still has a surprising amount of tannin that come through on the finish. Nevertheless, this is mature and drinking nicely. I would opt for drinking bottles over the coming decade or so." (96pts Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate #217, Feb 2015)

TIGNANELLO 1997

Antinori

(2 lightly torn labels)

2 magnums

"It is experiencing a perfect moment in its drinking window. Looking through The Wine Advocate archive, I see the suggestion of brett in a past review. I found absolutely no imperfections in this wine. Instead, the bouquet is generous and opulent with dark berry, spice, licorice and leather. Much of the Tignanello vineyards were replanted in the 1990s so I expect that the fruit came from younger vines. The finish is silky and long in persistency." ## COSTA RUSSI 2000

Gaja

(6 lightly scuffed labels)

9 bottles

"The 2000 Costa Russi comes across as rich, dense and powerful, with impressive depth in its dark fruit. As always, Costa Russi is the most forward of Gaja's single-vineyard wines from Barbaresco. The intensity of the fruit carries through nicely to the finish." (94pts Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate #195, May 2011)

$2,200 - 3,000

109 SORÌ SAN LORENZO 2000

Gaja (6 lightly scuffed labels) 6 bottles

"The 2000 Sori San Lorenzo is another of the standouts of the year. It remains quite youthful, with notable energy in its dark, brooding fruit and considerable tannin. Despite its sheer power, the 2000 isn't as explosive as it can be. Still, there is little doubt the 2000 Sori San Lorenzo has the stuffing to age well for many years to come." ## ORNELLAIA 1997

Tenuta dell'Ornellaia (1 lightly nicked label) owc 6 bottles

"Very ripe, complex aromas of black fruits, violet, exotic spices, licorice and humus. Then hugely full and sweet in the mouth, but with a faint greenness. Finishes with big, slightly rustic tannins-less fine-grained than usual for this estate. A classic wine from a hot year in which the ripening came in a rush." BOND RED 2001

Matriarch

owc

6 bottles

"A great introduction to Bond's style is the 2001 Matriarch, which Bob Levy calls, 'our elegant leftovers.' This is a three-vineyard blend of the iuice that was not rich or concentrated enough to be included in the single vineyard bottlings. Beautifully made, with wonderfully sweet notes of smoke, lead pencil shavings, black cherries, and cassis, an opulent texture, impressive concentration, low acidity, and silky tannin, it possesses more up-front charm and accessibility than its bigger siblings." With a soft, supple texture and an evolved, upfront style, it is ideal for drinking over the next decade. COLGIN CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2001

Herb Lamb

OWC

3 bottles

"Although the 2001 Cabernet Sauvignon Herb Lamb Vineyard is the most developed, it remains a youthful adolescent with exceptional intensity. Notes of tapenade, bay leaf, creme de cassis, charcoal and hints of truffles as well as new saddle leather emerge from this opaque purple-hued 2001. The gorgeous perfume is followed by rich, concentrated, full-bodied flavors, sweet tannin and beautiful intensity, purity and balance. It can be drunk now (although 4-5 more years of cellaring will prove beneficial) and over the next 25 years." (97pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #195, May 2011)

COLGIN CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2005

Tychson Hill Vineyard owc

3 bottles

"The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon Tychson Hill Vineyard is fresh and vibrant, with great fragrance (blueberry, black and red currants, licorice and graphite, as well as floral notes). It is stunningly fruity and full-bodied, with remarkable purity and texture, and combined with the gorgeous fragrance, fabulously concentrated with a nearly perfectly balanced mouthfeel and finish. This amazing wine should continue to develop for another 25 or more years." (96pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #219, June 2015)

COLGIN RED 2001

Cariad

OWC

3 bottles

"It boasts a dense purple color as well as a wonderful multidimensional personality with a huge perfume of charcoal, black truffles, chocolate, blackberries, blueberries and subtle oak. Full-bodied with a voluptuous texture in addition to a structured, intense style, it appears to be still holding much of its character in reserve. There is fabulous upside potential, but the 2001 is a firmer, more concentrated, potentially longer lived wine than the first two vintages." (99pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #195, May 2011)

COLGIN RED 2002

Cariad owc

3 bottles

"Probably the least evolved, although certainly accessible, stunningly complex, and just a point short of pure perfection is the 2002 Cariad. It is a blend of 58% Cabernet Sauvignon, 28% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot, all purchased fruit from the David Abreu-owned and managed vineyards of Madrona Ranch in St. Helena and Thorevilos, behind the Meadowood Resort. Strikingly dark plum/purple in color, with notes of white chocolate, barbecue smoke, graphite, blueberry and blackberry liqueur as well as espresso roast, this is a tremendously complex blend that hits the palate with full-bodied opulence, terrific richness and intensity, and wonderfully silky tannins. The entire wine saturates the palate yet is never heavy, instead rather ethereal. This is an extraordinarily elegant, complex, yet authoritative example of a creative blend from some of the finest terroirs in all of Napa Valley, brought to life by the extraordinary passion and abilities of owners Ann Colgin and Joe Wender." "Always one of the most aromatically complex wines, the 2004 comes across as a Graves-like offering with enormous notes of scorched earth, a hot rocks sort of nose and meaty black currant and black cherry fruit. IX Estate

OWC

6 bottles

"The youngest, tightest, most masculine wine of this quartet, it will benefit from another 5-6 years of cellaring and should have 25 years of life ahead of it. This impressive, blue/purple-colored 2003 behaves more like a 4- to 5-year-old wine than one that is a decade old. It is just beginning to strut its full potential. There is a roasted meaty character to this beauty, along with plenty of cassis, blackberries, blueberries, incense and spring flower notes. It admirably reveals the great terroir Ann Colgin and her husband, Joe Wender, have unlocked high above Lake Hennessey." (96+pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #207, June 2013)

"Youthful, supercomplex aromas of plum liqueur, currant, brown spices, leather and chocolate, plus an ineffable animal/vegetal/mineral element. Wonderful penetrating sweetness in the mouth; dense, thick, very intensely flavored and pungent. Sharply delineated. Perhaps not quite the sheer size of the '94. Finishes extremely long and focused, with fine tannins and a note of superripeness." (96pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, July 1999)

Suave, seamless and fully mature, offering a plush texture and moderate sweetness to its slightly decadent flavors of currant, leather, smoke, mocha, earth and fresh herbs. In contrast to the (relatively) more laid-back '95, this is almost painfully sweet on entry, with huge extract giving it a three-dimensional texture. More powerfully structured than the '95, but as large as it is, it retains near-perfect balance. Explosive finishing fruit covers the rich, sweet tannins." (96pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 1998)

Voluptuous and huge in the mouth, with explosive fruit bordering on confectionary; flavor of chocolate-covered currants. Much more powerfully structured than the estate second wine but the backbone is hidden under a tidal wave of lush fruit. Endless finish features extraordinarily fine, suave tannins. "Superripe, deep nose offers currant, plum, black cherry, truffle, smoke, meat and cedary spices. A wine of great sweetness and flavor intensity; remarkably suave in spite of its great solidity. Offers an almost liqueur-like ripeness and great density but sound acids keep the wine lively. Palate-staining aftertaste features substantial tonguedusting but fine tannins. As extraordinary as the nearly confectionery, more roasted Harlan Estate '97 is, this wine may well have more verve." (96+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2002)

"High-toned aromas of dusty currant, black raspberry, graphite and minerals. Very suave, minerally and vibrant, but less obviously ripe and smaller-scaled than the great '99, which showed explosive aromatics, remarkable breadth and texture, and great inner-mouth energy in early March, meriting 95 points. With a bit less mid-palate thickness and extract, the tannins in this 2000 are more apparent than those of the 1999." (92pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

"Like a liquid confection in the mouth: thick and sweet yet almost magically shapely and fresh. The longest, most inexorably palatestaining wine of my tour of the North Coast in early March: this lost no strength in my mouth after I had spit it. Damn near close to perfect wine; only my own refusal to give a perfect score to a wine that's still a decade or more short of its peak kept my score down. A big, deep, very rich vintage for Lafite, unusually generous at this early stage and extremely long on the aftertaste. ## CHÂTEAU MARGAUX 1998

Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé (lightly bin-soiled and scuffed label) 1 bottles

"Complex aromas of dark berries, exotic herbs, clove, cocoa and menthol. At once fat and juicy, with harmonious acidity giving the wine's dark berry, underbrush and cocoa flavors terrific lift. Finishes smooth and dense, with a rich, ripe mouthfeel and excellent persistence. This very successful 1998 avoids the austere side of many other 1998 Bordeaux." (92pts lan D'Agata, Vinous, Jan 2012)

$320 - 420

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX 1999

Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé (lightly bin-soiled label) 1 bottle

"Expressive aromas of black raspberry, Cuban tobacco and grilled nuts; a bit more red fruit in character than either the 2000 or the 2001. Silky, seamless and enveloping, but the wine's excellent vinosity gives its creamy fruit very good definition. Consistent from start to finish. Tannins are substantial but fine, allowing the fruit and floral flavors to linger impressively. Along with Latour, an early candidate for the wine of the vintage." (93pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2002)

$350 - 450

161

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1995

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (lightly bin-soiled label) 1 bottle

"Very dark, fully saturated ruby to the rim. Deep, brooding, rich aromas of blackberry, violet, milk chocolate, black pepper, cedar and incense; sexy and captivating. Bright and focused on entry, then rich, very smooth and suave, with highly concentrated flavors of red berries, dark plum, cedar and graphite. The extremely long, juicy finish features lively acids, great balance and persistent notes of underbrush and minerals. The mounting tannins coat the palate dry and are still years away from resolving fully." (95pts Ian D'Agata, Vinous, Aug 2011)

$400 - 500

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1999

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (2 lightly bin-soiled and scuffed labels) 2 bottles

"Currant, meat, mocha and grilled nuts on the nose. Lush, sweet and smooth, with just enough vinosity to maintain its balance. A vin de plaisir whose lovely fruit and sweet, harmonious tannins make it very easy to taste today (the chateau carried out a gentler, shorter extraction in '99)." (90pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2002)

CHÂTEAU PALMER 2000

Margaux 3me Cru Classé (3 lightly scuffed labels) 5 bottles

"Knockout nose combines blackberry, violet, espresso, graphite and licorice. Then impressively sweet in the mouth, even slightly roasted; comes across as rather aggressive following the leaner, high-pitched 2002. Extremely rich, full Palmer but a bit brutal today, and not currently showing the perfume it displayed from barrel. The wine's substantial but ripe tannins call for at least six or seven years of bottle aging." (91+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

$1,100 - 1,400

CHÂTEAU PAVIE 2000

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A (1 nicked, 2 lightly bin-soiled and 3 lightly scuffed labels) 4 bottles

"Just beginning to come around and strut its enormous potential, this wine at age 15 has been evolving like a glacier. The wine has an inky, opaque, plum/purple color and a stunningly rich nose of mulberries, bramble berries, blackberries, licorice and incense as well as touches of toast and graphite. Fabulously concentrated and full-bodied, with a multidimensional mouthfeel, this profound Pavie is in midadolescence. It should evolve and continue to drink well for at least another 30-40 years. This is clearly the first compelling effort made by the Perse family." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #220, Aug 2015)

$1,500 - 2,000

CHÂTEAU PAVIE 2003

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A
(1 lightly nicked, 1 scuffed and 4 lightly bin-soiled labels)

"Quite locked up on the nose following the February bottling; hinted at currant, smoked meat and roasted nuts as it opened in the glass. Extremely powerful but a bit chunky today, conveying an impression of extraordinary solidity. One senses but does not taste the minerals and primary berry fruit. But this painfully closed wine already offers uncanny sweetness. The major mouthful of tannins calls for at least six to eight years of cellaring. A classic extreme 2003 that is currently in a sullen stage." (92+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2006)

$1,700 - 2,200

168

CHÂTEAU PICHON-LALANDE 2000

Pauillac 2em Cru Classé

(1 lightly nicked, 1 lightly scuffed and 2 lightly bin-soiled labels) 4 bottles

"Rather wild aromas of plum, black raspberry, lead pencil, tobacco, minerals and roasted game. Sweet, thick and complex, with very ripe, mellow flavors of black raspberry, truffle, roasted herbs, espresso and tobacco. Will rely more on its firm tannins than its rather soft, harmonious acids for longevity. This very persistent wine may be starting to shut down in the bottle, but it displays the lovely penetrating sweetness of the year." (94pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

CHÂTEAU TROPLONG MONDOT 2000

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé B 2 bottles

"Expressive, thoroughly ripe aromas of blackberry, violet and game. Sweet on entry, then lush and densely packed in the middle, with terrific depth of flavor and backbone. Very ripe yet cool flavors of blackberry, espresso and licorice. A powerfully constituted wine that will need a good decade of bottle aging. But, in contrast to the 2001 and 2002 vintages, here the strong tannins are beautifully distributed and fine. A great success for this chateau." (92+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2003)

GRANDS ÉCHÉZEAUX 2001

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti (#00337)

1 bottle

"... while the floral yet extremely earthy nose with elegant ripe, pure, intense, beautifully delineated crushed black fruit aromas is still quite expressive, the plum and anise laced broad-shouldered flavors that were closing down have begun to open once again. The finish displays firm, dusty, almost robust structure yet the tannins themselves seem refined and overall, this is an incredibly powerful wine, indeed even a forceful one but with no lack of class. There remains fine upside potential here and to that end I have slightly upgraded my score as this is a very special wine. I should note however that this has arrived at the stage of its evolution where it's clearly not yet fully mature but it's not so far away that it can't be enjoyed, particularly if given 30 minutes of air first." "Sappy aromas of black raspberry, blueberry, blackberry, violet, tar and minerals. Superconcentrated, lavered, deep flavors of blackberry. raspberry, cassis and licorice; offers an uncanny chewiness of texture. As powerful as this is, it's also suave and seamless, with a total absence of rough edges. There are hints of espresso and forest floor, but this very broad, primary wine will need time to develop more nuance. Finishes with a major tannic spine and superb subtle persistence." "It's a beauty, with all that Dow power and structure that I've loved over the years--even after some hours of decanting. Intensely concentrated in flavor, without being jammy, this lingers on the gripping finish after starting with a touch of mint. Serious and brooding, it is not yet as complex and as developed as it could be--but this is Port and that will come in time. Be patient. In the meanwhile, if you must crack this now, give it a few hours in a decanter, to state the obvious. This is a terrific Dow's VP that is still growing and improving. It is still about its potential in some ways and it may well exceed expectations. It will certainly acquire even more complexity with more cellaring. Personally, I would try to give it at least another decade in the cellar." (96pts Mark Squires, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

"The 1992 is a majestic young port that should ultimately rival, perhaps even surpass this house's most recent great efforts (1985, 1977, 1970, 1963). This colossal vintage port reveals a nearly opaque black/purple color, and an explosive nose of jammy black fruits, licorice, chocolate, and spices. Extremely full-bodied and unctuously-textured, this multi-layered, enormously-endowed port reveals a finish that lasts for over a minute. It is a magnificent port that will age well for 30-40 years." #### FONSECA VINTAGE PORT 1994

(1 scuffed and 6 lightly scuffed labels, 1 scuffed capsule) 7 bottles

"One of the most spectacular 1994s, this opaque purple-colored wine is an exotic, flamboyant, ostentatious port. Extremely fragrant and pungent, with a flashy display of jammy cassis, pepper, licorice, and truffles, this port is an attention-grabber. Awesomely rich, and full-bodied, with superb length, richness, and overall balance, it possesses a huge mid-palate, layers of flavor, an unctuous texture, and a blockbuster finish. Everything is in place, with the brandy and tannin well-integrated, even concealed by the masses of fruit and glycerin. This wine will drink fabulously well at age ten, but keep for up to thirty years." (97pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #107, Oct 1996)

"Much deeper in color than the 1945, the 1955 Sandeman Vintage Porto has an attractive resinous bouquet with beeswax, mulberry, cloves, Provencal herbs and star anis surfacing with aeration. There is a noticeable nutty component to this '55 – smoked walnut is more prominent when returning 20 minutes later. The palate is harmonious with less viscosity than the 1944, but armed with greater length and complexity. This '55 is imbued with fine acidity and offers a pinch of white pepper toward the elegant finish. This Sandeman has the substance to continue aging for some years yet." "Taylor's 1992 Vintage Port is unquestionably the greatest young port I have ever tasted. It represents the essence of what vintage port can achieve. The color is an opaque black/purple, and the nose offers up fabulously intense aromas of minerals, cassis, blackberries. licorice, and spices, as well as extraordinary purity and penetration. Yet this is still an unformed and infantile wine. If Chateau Latour made a late-harvest Cabernet Sauvignon, I suspect it might smell like this. In the mouth, the wine is out of this world, displaying layer upon layer of concentrated black fruits backed by well-integrated tannin and structure. This is a massive, magnificently rich, full-bodied port that will be far more flattering in its youth than were such Taylors as the 1983, 1977, or 1970. It possesses awesome fruit, marvelous intensity, and lavish opulence, all brilliantly well-delineated by the wine's formidable structure. This monumental 30-50 year port is a must purchase for port aficionados.! Also noteworthy is the fact that the 1992 Taylor commemorates the 300th anniversary of this firm, as evidenced by the special bottle Taylor used for this port." "This classically made, opaque purple-colored wine is crammed with black fruits (blueberries and cassis). "The 2003 Taylor's has a lovely ripe, primal bouquet of blackberry, raspberry, vanilla and marmalade that shows slightly better delineation than the Fonseca. The palate is medium-bodied with very composed, refined tannins that belie the heat of that summer. There is wonderful focus here and fine tension, the finish offering precise notes of black cherries, mulberry, cloves and white pepper. This is one of the finest Ports of a precocious vintage." "As one might expect, the purity of the cassis, which is always a hallmark of this estate and wine, is well-displayed in this beauty. Dense purple in color, it offers up some floral notes intermixed with damp earth, blackcurrant jam, blackberry and hints of licorice and incense. This reminds me somewhat of the 2010 Screaming Eagle. Full-bodied, rich, but perfectly balanced, it's another terrific example of this iconic estate." (97+pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #221, Oct 2015)

CHÂTEAU LATOUR 1982

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (top shoulder, lightly bin-soiled label) 1 bottle

"...the 1982 Latour has been the most opulent, flamboyant, and precocious of the northern Medocs, especially the St.-Juliens, Pauillacs, and St.-Estephes. It hasn't changed much over the last 10-15 years, revealing sweet tannins as well as extraordinarily decadent, even extravagant levels of fruit, glycerin, and body. It is an amazing wine, and on several occasions, I have actually picked it as a right bank Pomerol because of the lushness and succulence of the cedary, blackberry, black currant fruit. This vintage has always tasted great, even in its youth, and revealed a precociousness that one does not associate with this Chateau. However, the 1982 is still evolving at a glacial pace. The concentration remains remarkable, and the wine is a full-bodied, exuberant, rich, classic Pauillac in its aromatic and flavor profiles. It's just juiced up (similar to an athlete on steroids) and is all the better for it. This remarkable effort will last as long as the 1982 Mouton, but it has always been more approachable and decadently fruity." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1982

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (base neck, scuffed, stained and wrinkled label) 1 bottle

"This wine remains one of the legends of Bordeaux. It has thrown off the backward, youthful style that existed during its first 25 years of life, and over the last 4-5 years has developed such secondary nuances as cedar and spice box. The creme de cassis, underlying floral note, full-bodied power, extraordinary purity, multilayered texture, and finish of over a minute are a showcase for what this Chateau accomplished in 1982. The wine is still amazingly youthful, vibrant, and pure. It appears capable of remaining fruity and vibrant in 2082!" (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

"Fantastically pure with the classic spice box, hoisin and soy nose followed by big, rich, very structured flavors that display notes of earth, leather and tea. The tannins are big, ripe and are completely buffered by the sap with length that is simply phenomenal. This remains completely primary in character and seems not to have budged at all since it was bottled. A fine, if not genuinely great, vintage for La Tâche that is softer in the mouth than the '96 Grands Ech and this should improve for most of another decade and last for 50 years. Very classy juice." This is a wine that is absolutely packed with potential and I wouldn't dream of opening a bottle before it had at least 10 years of bottle age and probably 12 to 15. This is a big wine, indeed the word massive does not exaggerate the palate impact of the almost breathtakingly concentrated and powerful flavors that, despite all of the size, weight and dry extract, avoid any trace of heaviness on the extraordinarily long finish. There is excellent concentration to the broad-shouldered and moderately powerful flavors that possess a caressing mouth feel on the mid-palate yet the hugely long and pungently stony finish is borderline painfully intense. I was actually quite surprised at how much better this was than the Genevrières as there was just an entire other dimension of depth and length. The powerful medium-bodied flavors exude plenty of dry extract that confers a sappy texture upon the strikingly complex mid-palate though the saline suffused cutslike-a-knife finish is chiseled, explosive and massively long. This is textbook Les Clos with size, power and explosive energy and offers a remarkable contrast to the Zen-like Preuses where its harmony and understatement are its primary strengths. #### CHABLIS, LES PREUSES 2012

Dauvissat 6 bottles

"...a bit more expressive nose that combines subtle notes of white flowers, ovster shell, mineral reduction and pear. There is impressive size, weight and richness to the dense and mouth coating flavors that retain a wonderful sense of refinement before culminating in a salty and silky finish that seems just to go on and on; it's that persistent. As it almost always is, this is Zen-like in its harmony. In a word, wonderful." (94pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, May 2016)

$800 - 1,100

CHABLIS, BUTTEAUX 2010

Raveneau 3 bottles

"At barely seven years of age this is only just beginning to loosen up with its beautifully layered aromas of spiced pear, mineral reduction, sea shore and green fruit scents. There is a wonderful complexity to the powerful and seductively textured medium weight plus flavors that possess excellent intensity on the slightly austere and moderately dry finish that delivers outstanding length. It's clear that this is very much still on the way up and I would be inclined to hold it at least another 4 to 6 years but overall, this is really quite impressive." (93pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, July 2017)

$480 - 600

CHABLIS, BUTTEAUX 2011

Raveneau

6 bottles

"An overtly expressive, even pungent nose displays a mix of citrus elements as well as notes of white flowers, mineral reduction, iodine and seaweed. There is excellent richness, even a creamy texture to the robust and muscular flavors that brim with a fine dry extract while culminating in a tension-filled, complex and mineral-driven finish that exhibits just a touch of youthful bitterness." (92pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, Oct 2013)

$650 - 850

262

CHABLIS, BUTTEAUX 2013

Raveneau 3 bottles

"There is just enough wood present to warrant commenting on as it sets off a less expressive nose that is comprised of mineral reduction, floral, pear and iodine scents. The palate impression is one of bigger, richer and more muscular flavors that also provide a lovely touch of stoniness on the solidly lingering finish that also displays a hint of warmth. As it usually is, this is a bit more structured with enough dry extract to allow this to be enjoyed young too." (92pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, Oct 2015)

$320 - 420

263

CHABLIS, BUTTEAUX 2014

Raveneau
(2 lightly scuffed capsules)
6 bottles

"There is excellent freshness and complexity to the layered combination of mineral reduction, pear, green apple, white flower and quinine water that could be from nowhere else but Chablis. There is equally good freshness and verve to the big-bodied, muscular and powerful flavors that possess plenty of sappy dry extract that coats the palate while buffering the impressively long, lemony, chiseled and mildly austere finish." (93pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, Nov 2017)

$1,100 - 1,400

264

CHABLIS, FORÊT 2011

Raveneau 6 bottles

"Not surprisingly this offers a big step up in aromatic complexity with its fresh and cool nose of citrus, white peach and soft floral scents. There is plenty of underlying tension to the precise, intense and mineral-inflected flavors that possess good balance and much better depth and length. This understated effort should amply reward 5 to 7 years of cellar time." (90pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, Oct 2013)

CHABLIS, MONTÉE DE TONNERRE 2009

Raveneau

nch

1 dozen bottles

"Subtle wood sets off aromas of flowers, oyster shell and tidal pool that complement perfectly the racy, pure and strikingly well-detailed medium plus weight flavors that brim with minerality on the delicious, mouth coating and impressively long finish. This beautifully vibrant and concentrated effort should drink well young and age well too plus it's more classic in style than many wines from this vintage." "The expressive and ripe nose displays various floral nuances, citrus, stone, oyster shell and ocean breeze scents that are trimmed in just a hint of wood. There is really beautiful detail to the stony, sappy and sleekly muscular middle weight flavors that display a lovely sense of harmony and vibrancy on the moderately dry and impressively persistent finish." ## CHABLIS, MONTÉE DE TONNERRE 2012

Raveneau

6 bottles

"A strikingly elegant and pure nose that features notes of white flowers, spiced pear, iodine and oyster shell is also trimmed in a deft touch of oak. There is remarkable concentration to the intense, driving and highly energetic flavors that exude a fine minerality on the explosively long finish. This really builds from the mid-palate before staining the palate as it fans out. Most impressive." (94pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, Oct 2014)

$1,100 - 1,400

CHABLIS, MONTÉE DE TONNERRE 2014

Raveneau 6 bottles

"This is even more elegant and more refined still with its strikingly layered nose that once again is cool, pure and airy with its floral-suffused nose that possesses a plethora of classic Chablis scents along with discreet wood nuances. There is an absolutely gorgeous mouth feel to the medium-bodied flavors that exude a fine bead of minerality on the explosively long, saline and impeccably well-balanced finale." (94pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, Oct 2016)

CHABLIS, VAILLONS 2010

Raveneau
3 bottles

"This beauty is coming along very nicely and while it hasn't completely peaked, it's not so far away that it couldn't be enjoyed now if that's your preference. A notably ripe yet airy, cool and elegant nose offers up maturing notes of oyster shell, dried flowers and spice hints along with a hint of petrol. The equally fresh, pure and beautifully well-detailed medium-bodied flavors possess excellent intensity and plenty of verve on the racy, complex and solidly persistent finish." (91pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, July 2017)

$480 - 600

CHABLIS, VAILLONS 2011

Raveneau 6 bottles

"This is also quite floral though here the supporting aromas are comprised of white pepper, spice and a whiff of lemon rind. The round, pure and admirably vibrant medium-bodied flavors possess a lovely minerality before terminating in a mouth coating finish that really spreads out on the finish. Good stuff." (91pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, Oct 2013)

CHABLIS, VAILLONS 2012

Raveneau 3 bottles

"This is more floral still with plenty of citrus and mineral reduction character to the layered combination of iodine, algae and spice elements. There is good density to the supple and very round medium weight flavors that possess really lovely detail on the salty, intense and markedly dry finish that delivers excellent depth and length." (92pts Allen Meadows, Burghound, Oct 2014)

$480 - 600

272 CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE, RÉSERVÉ 2005

Château Rayas

(lightly bin-soiled and glue-stained label)
1 bottle

"Explosively perfumed nose offers a kaleidoscopic bouquet of red berries, candied cherry, orange marmalade and fresh flowers. Silky and deep in raspberry and cherry flavor, but with an airy, graceful character reminiscent of a highfalootin' Burgundy. A remarkably concentrated, elegant wine that finishes with superb, seamless length. There is absolutely no excess fat on this." (96pts Josh Raynolds, Vinous, Jan 2008)

274 SOLAIA 1997

Antinori (lightly scuffed label) owc

1 magnum

"For many years, the 1997 Solaia was super-concentrated. Actually, it still is pretty intense, but over the last few years, some of the baby fat has begun to melt away, revealing a wine with tons of nuance. The 1997 clearly belongs in this flight of milestones. This is another memorable Solaia with no signs of fading." (95pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2013)

PINGUS 1996

Dominio de Pingus (1 nicked, 2 lightly wrinkled and 3 bin-soiled labels) 3 bottles

"Extraordinarily complex, lively nose combines black raspberry, bitter chocolate, nutmeg and an intriguing suggestion of roasted herbs. Amazingly rich and smooth in the mouth; truly explosive fruit offers superb vinosity and snap. Like liquid velvet but with great clarity of flavor. Builds in intensity and seems to grow thicker on the back half. The huge finishing fruit coats the entire palate. Amazing juice." (96+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, Nov 1999)

$1,300 - 1,700

ÚNICO 1962

Vega Sicilia (base neck, lightly bin-soiled and torn label)

"The 1962 Vega Sicilia possesses quite astonishing purity on the nose with candied dark cherry fruit, eucalyptus, kirsch and a touch of cinnamon. This is what you might describe as a -perfect bouquet-. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin, seamless and satin-like in texture: an Unico that is shimmering with untrammeled greatness. Youthful, vivacious and utterly compelling, this is a profound wine that even after four decades is surfeit with precocity. Undoubtedly, this must be one of the greatest Spanish wines to have graced this planet." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #202, Aug 2012)

$1,000 - 1,300

278

DOMINUS ESTATE 1994

(slight signs of past seepage) owc (no lid) 1 double magnum

"Distinctly sauvage aromas of redcurrant, coffee, leather, game and spicecake. Suave, seamless and fully mature, offering a plush texture and moderate sweetness to its slightly decadent flavors of currant, leather, smoke, mocha, earth and fresh herbs. This wild boy is at its apogee right now, although some tasters may find it too funky. Finishes classically dry, with dusty sweet tannins and considerable sex appeal." (93pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, July 2015)

$1,300 - 1,700

SHAFER CABERNET SAUVIGNON 1994

Hillside Select (1 bin-soiled and 1 heavily bin-soiled label) owc 6 bottles

"A spectacular wine, the 1994 Shafer Cabernet Sauvignon Hillside Select begins a succession of profound Hillside Select cuvées that continues nearly uninterrupted (1996 misses slightly) to the present day. It is a further indication of just how impressive this team's performance has been at this winery. The fully mature 1994, which has another 15-20 years of drinkability ahead of it, exhibits a complex, nearly flamboyant nose of subtle oak, blue, red and black fruits, graphite and licorice. The gorgeous aromas are followed by an opulent, full-bodied, multidimensional mouthfeel that coats the palate." (96pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #216, Dec 2014)

$1,500 - 2,000

280

SHAFER CABERNET SAUVIGNON 1995

Hillside Select

(1 heavily bin-soiled and 2 bin-soiled labels) 3 bottles

"Interestingly, the first thing that came to my mind in smelling the 1995 Shafer Cabernet Sauvignon Hillside Select was a relatively young vintage of Château Latour. Another fabulous effort, with notes of blackcurrants, graphite, a touch of vanilla, sweet tannin and a full-bodied, multidimensional mouthfeel, this vintage offers stunning aromatics of black fruits, earth, charcoal and lead pencil shavings. In addition, there is an intense, full-bodied mouthfeel, and a youthful vibrancy and vigor that are sensational. This is an amazingly young wine that's coming up on 20 years of age and another great example of just how these best terroirs of Napa can produce incredibly long-lived Cabernet Sauvignons. It should last at least another two decades as well." (98pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #216, Dec 2014)

$700 - 900

281

SHAFER CABERNET SAUVIGNON 1996

Hillside Select 3 bottles

"A drought year produced the 1996 Shafer Cabernet Sauvignon Hillside Select, which is slightly more compact than great vintages, but nevertheless impressive. It offers further evidence that even in more challenging years, the Hillside Select is a special wine. Dense plum/purple with notes of cedarwood, charcoal, underbrush and forest, the wine has plenty of cassis, a medium to full-bodied mouthfeel, ripe tannin, but a slightly less impressive finish than the 1995 or 1994. This wine seems to be in its plateau of full maturity, where it should hold for at least another 10-12 years." (93pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #216, Dec 2014)

JACQUES SELOSSE VINTAGE CHAMPAGNE 2002

Blanc de Blancs, Millésimé 1 magnum

"Pungent, high-pitched aromas of nectarine, melon, smoky minerals and honey. Sappy, pliant and seamless, with strong mineral lift and cut to its palate-staining candied lime, passion fruit and floral flavors. An intense gingery quality lingers on the long, mineral-accented finish, which features subtle smoke and iodine flourishes." (94pts Josh Raynolds, Vinous, Dec 2014)

"The 2013 Matriarch, which may well be the finest Matriarch made to date, could easily stand on its own as a single-vineyard offering. Made from the odds and ends of the single-vineyard wines, nevertheless this is pretty great wine, and I joked with the winemaking team that maybe their selection process was too draconian. Dense purple, with notes of mulberry, blackberry, chocolate, cocoa and espresso, the wine is dense, full-bodied, opulent, and a total hedonistic turn-on." "Very ripe, musky, perfumed aromas of red plum, raspberry and olive tapenade take on orange blossom and herbal nuances with aeration. Very plush, rich and fine-grained, if without quite the dimension of the 2004 version. But this is similarly broad and palate-coating, with its salty and meaty qualities giving it a strong umami character. Much less fruity and sweet on the back end, finishing with mineral and bitter chocolate notes and good grip." (93pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, April 2017)

"The 2008 Continuum is showing beautifully today. Dark, layered and expressive, the 2008 graces with dark plum, black cherry, spice, licorice and menthol. The intense aromatic and spice components are really singing right now. In its early life, the 2008 was closed and unexpressive, but over the last year it has really opened up beautifully. Orange peel and exotic higher toned notes ring out on the finish. With air, the 2008 is drinking beautifully today, but the firm tannins and intensity of the fruit both suggest it will age gracefully for years." (95pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Nov 2013)

"One of the wines of the vintage, the 2011 Continuum is just as beautiful as it has always been. Crystalline, pure and wonderfully nuanced in the glass, the 2011 offers gorgeous aromatics, finely-sculpted fruit and fabulous overall balance. Sweet rose petal, dark-fleshed stone fruits, mint, spices and leather are some of the signatures. With several years in the bottle the 2011 is becoming more and more exotic, with a captivating interplay of aromatics, fruit and a classically inspired sense of structure. Once again, the 2011 Continuum shows just how strong the vintage can be in the right places." (95+pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Oct 2015)

"A juicy, flamboyant wine, the 2012 Continuum captures the personality of the year from the very first taste. Here the flavors are bold and racy to the core, with pungent dark red fruit and spice dominating. The new French oak (75%) is a bit pronounced today. Otherwise, this is a fine showing. The 2012 needs a bit more time to shed some baby fat, but it will offer its finest drinking earlier than most other vintages." (94pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Oct 2015)

CONTINUUM RED 2013

Napa Valley owc 3 bottles

"Graphite, lavender, sage, cloves and menthol race out of the glass in the 2013 Continuum, a wine that is just as impressive in bottle as it was from barrel. An intensely saline, mineral-drenched wine endowed with serious depth and precision, the 2013 shines with exceptional structural intensity and power, all that despite just having been bottled. In 2013 the Cabernet Franc is way up, which helps give the wine more aromatic top notes as well as greater overall complexity. Simply put, the 2013 is a real knock-out." (2 lightly bin-soiled labels)

"The extraordinary Harlan Estate, which I awarded 100 points seven years ago, offers no justifiable reason to doubt its perfect score. It is still a baby, with an inky purple color and notes of smoky camphor intermixed with creme de cassis, Asian soy and a hint of cedar beginning to emerge as well as some espresso and subtle damp forest floor notes. The wine has awesome intensity, a full-bodied mouthfeel, a skyscraper-like texture, and a finish that goes on for close to a minute. This is a perfect wine, still youthful and young, and not even in full adolescence as of 2012." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #201, June 2012)

HARLAN ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2005

(1 lightly scuffed label)

2 bottles

"The 2005 is incredibly youthful at age ten, although certainly drinkable. And who wouldn't consume it if they had the opportunity? It will benefit from another 5-10 years of cellaring and certainly has 30 or more years left in its evolutionary curve. Gorgeous, and tasting akin to a hypothetical Pauillac blended with a great Pessac-Léognan from Bordeaux comes to mind because of the smoky, subtle barbecue notes, fruitcake, forest floor, graphite and minerality. The wine has stunning fruit and a full-bodied, powerful richness, yet is still nimble on its feet. This is a classic Napa Cabernet Sauvignon from an absolutely magnificent hillside vineyard in the Mayacamas Mountains overlooking the Oakville corridor on the valley floor. This opaque, garnet/purple wine is another tour de force and, once again, proves that Harlan Estate is not only one of the greatest wines of California, but of the world." (1 lightly bin-soiled and 2 lightly scuffed label) 3 bottles

"I wouldn't be surprised to see the 2010 Harlan Estate inch closer to perfection over the next decade. Surprisingly supple for this vintage, while this cuvee is not usually that flamboyant or exuberant in its youth, the 2010 is sensual and performing remarkably well. Its deep purple color is accompanied by notions of charcoal, graphite, camphor, creme de cassis, barbecue smoke and blackberries. As usual, this complex effort reminds me of a hypothetical blend of a great Pauillac and Graves (such as La Mission Haut-Brion). Rich, full-bodied and softer than I would have expected in this vintage, it is a prodigious, multidimensional, compelling wine." (98+pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #209, Oct 2013)

"The 2012 Harlan Estate is reminiscent of their 2002. Probably a candidate for perfection with another 4-5 years of bottle age, the wine is inky plum/purple to the rim and offers a gorgeous nose of scorched earth, blackberry and cassis, forest floor, and a floral, lavender-like component followed by deep, opulent, majestic flavors that caress the palate with high but sweet tannin. This is relatively evolved, and supple and voluptuous for a young Harlan estate – hence the comparison with their compelling 2002. "(99+pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #221, Oct 2015)

"This great first-growth property, with aspirations to produce the finest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine made in the New World, has given us a wine that has it all in 2013. Dense purple to the rim, with notes of espresso, white chocolate, mocha, blackberry, cassis, and cedar wood, the wine is full-bodied, opulent, but also structured, pure and incredibly long (well past a minute aftertaste). It is probably closest in personality and overall character to the compelling 2001, which is still a youthful wine at age 15." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

One hundred percent Cabernet Sauvignon, as are all these wines, the Ark Vineyard is certainly another blockbuster wine with no hard edges that comes across like a flawlessly constructed dress from an haute couture house in Paris. "This is another luxurious, exceptionally concentrated and loaded wine with great intensity, a multi-dimensional mouthfeel, unbelievable amounts of blackberry, cassis and blueberry fruit, crushed rock minerality, and a floral note. It is easily the most backward of the five Cabernet Sauvignons I tasted from Woodbridge in 2012. The wine is super-intense, displays plenty of tannin, but is silky and well-integrated. This wine needs at least 4-5 years of cellaring, and should keep for 30-50 years, as it promises to be one of the modern-day legends from Napa." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #220, Aug 2015)

A magnificent example, it is one of the prodigious wines of this great vintage for Bordeaux varietals in Napa. "Like all of the Woodbridge wines, it can be noted for its inky/bluish purple color, extraordinary fragrance of white flowers, crème de cassis, blackberry and graphite. Totally opulent, I always thought the wine tasted more like the great Pomerols, which are made mostly from Merlot, versus Woodbridge's 100% Cabernet Sauvignon. But this vineyard has a lot of clay in it that seems to provide a silkiness to the tannins. This is a beautifully balanced, full-throttle and highly extracted wine with no hard edges and a finish of a good 45-50 seconds. The fruit character is still vibrant and intense, despite the 32 months of oak age. Drink it over the next 30 years." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

"The 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon M. Etain is in essence a second wine, but it sure doesn't taste like one. Its deep purple color is followed by pure black raspberry and blackcurrant fruit, dusty, loamy soil notes, extraordinary depth of fruit, ripeness and good acidity. This opulent, round beauty is ideal for drinking over the next decade or more." (94pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #215, Oct 2014)

"Deep, brooding, fully ripe aromas of cassis, cocoa powder, licorice, peppery herbs and Rutherford dust. Silky, suave and deep; builds inexorably to saturate the entire palate with dark berry, dark chocolate and mocha flavors. Finishes very long and seriously structured, with noble chocolatey tannins calling for patience. This potentially long-lived wine may well merit an even higher score with a decade or so in the bottle." (94+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2013)

"Cassis, blackberry, licorice, bitter chocolate and a pungent mineral component on the vibrant nose. Denser than the estate's second wine, showing an attractively fine-grained texture but not quite the depth or sweetness of a top year here. I find this youthfully closed today, with the wine's broad tannins in need of at least a few years of patience." (92pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2014)

"A compelling, exotic beauty, the 2012 Scarecrow impresses for its power and intensity. White flowers, spices and new leather wrap around a core of dark fruit as this imposing, structured Cabernet Sauvignon opens up in the glass. The 2012 needs time in bottle to drop some baby fat and develop more aromatic nuance, but it is absolutely captivating, even today." (96pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2014)

"The 2013 Scarecrow is magnificent. Rich, opulent and intense, the 2013 is a prototypical modern Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon with tons of ripeness, no hard edges and exceptional polish. A host of ferrous, savory notes abound, but as usual here, Scarecrow is really about the whole package. The 2013 is still recovering from its recent bottling, but it is pretty special, even at this early stage." (97pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Oct 2015)

"The 2014 Scarecrow comes across as understated and refined today. Some of that may be the personality of the year. The 2014 was also bottled relatively recently, which makes me think it could turn out to be even better than this note suggests. Soft, silky tannins and exceptional purity of flavor are two of the signatures in this exceptionally beautiful, captivating Cabernet Sauvignon. Scarecrow can often be powerful and virile. In 2014, however, it is a wine of finesse." (96+pts Antonio

"The 2003 Shafer Cabernet Sauvignon Hillside Select has a dense, purple color, notes of creosote, graphite, blackberry and cassis fruit, charcoal and scorched earth. It has a full-bodied mouthfeel and excellent purity, while some rather noticeable tannins kick in on the finish. This wine seems to be moving from adolescence to that early mature stage, where I would expect it to hold for at least another 10-15 or more years. Clearly not one of the superstars in what was a rather astonishing qualitative lineup, but it's outrageously good Cabernet Sauvignon, and I expect myself, as well as any of my readers, would drink this 24/7." "The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon Hillside Select (about 2,000 cases produced) is another one of those "wow" wines, but it does it with a sort of measured richness and restraint and extraordinary subtle character, like the Gary Cooper of Napa Cabernet Sauvignons – authentic, tall, straight-boned, but substantial and worthy of introspection. Inky purple, with a classic nose of creme de cassis, licorice, a touch of vanilla and forest floor, the wine hits the palate with a gorgeous display of measured, but substantial fruit, body and intensity. Not a component is out of place, and the wine remarkably pure and persuasive. Combine great winemaking with great viticulture and a special terroir, and this is the result. Readers are in the presence of genius when tasting this wine." (99pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #219, June 2015)

"One of the perfect wines from Shafer is the 2007 Shafer Cabernet Sauvignon Hillside Select. Think it over – in the first decade of the 21st century, Shafer scored three perfect scores and two 99s – that's about as high a praise as I can give any producer in the world. Opaque purple in color, the 2007 has a stunning nose of sweet crème de cassis, black cherries, licorice, and toasty oak, a multilayered, full-throttle personality, and a texture that builds and builds. Great purity, fabulous fruit intensity and a richness without heaviness characterize this massive, prodigious effort from Shafer." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #216, Dec 2014)

The purity of these fruits, the multidimensional mouthfeel, the seamless integration of acid, alcohol, tannin and wood are all flawless. The 2012 signature adds an extravagant opulence and density that is just mind-boggling, and the wine is a total hedonistic and intellectual turn-on already, although it has 30+ years of life ahead of it." Deep purple-colored, with well-integrated, spicy, toasty oak competing with gobs of sweet blackcurrant fruit and spice, this full-bodied, well-endowed, concentrated Cabernet is powerful yet well-balanced. It needs another 2-3 years of cellaring to resolve some tannin, but it will easily last 15-20 years. These limited production gems certainly merit the hyperbole and accolades they receive." "Redcurrant, leather and game on the expressive if slightly rustic nose. Sweet and concentrated but a bit youthfully aggressive, and not showing the refinement or definition of the 2006. Strong nutty oak component. Finishes with substantial tannins that are a bit richer and more fully buffered by the wine's middle-palate material than those of the 2006. It will be interesting to compare these two vintages in ten years or so." (90pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2008)

"Closed but extremely pure and penetrating on the nose, offering delicate aromas of crushed blackcurrant, flint and graphite lifted by a perfumed violet topnote. Very refined and clean on the palate, with concentrated cassis, violet, ink and cedar flavors that are archetypal Lafite. Finishes with the hint of astringency that I find in a lot of 2010 Bordeaux. This is an extremely impressive Lafite but it needs at least a decade of cellaring." (96+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, July 2013)

CHÂTEAU LATOUR 2005

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé owc-banded 1 dozen bottles

"The 2005 Latour is nowhere near being ready to drink. For example, both the 2001 and 2002 were much more expressive when they were re-released a few years ago. The 2005, on the other hand is quite muted, especially in its aromatics. There is plenty of depth, power and overall persistence, but readers have to be prepared to cellar the 2005 for at least another few years. Its longevity, on the other hand, should not be an issue." Domaine de la Romanée-Conti (#00351)

"This is not as deeply hued as the La Tâche though it rarely ever is. The kaleidoscopically spicy, floral and complex nose however is a good deal more expressive, indeed almost surprisingly so given that it typically is quite reticent. In the same fashion as the La Tâche one aspect that is immediately clear is that 2013 is an emphatically powerful vintage for RC with its dense, serious and muscular middle weight plus flavors that retain terrific delineation on the extraordinarily pure and refined finish that seems to go on and on. The intensity does a slow build from the mid-palate to the explosive finale yet for all the robust power and intensity the overall impression remains harmonious and entirely Zen-like. This is, in a word, gorgeous." (96pts Allen Meadows, Burghound.com, Jan 2016)

CHÂTEAU CHEVAL BLANC 1989

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A (3 lightly scuffed and 4 lightly bin-soiled labels) 5 bottles

"...sweeter and smoother in the mouth than the nose suggests, showing very ripe red cherry, blackberry, milk chocolate and mineral flavors. This boasts a lovely creamy texture and a nice spicy finish, with chewy tannins. A lovely wine, with a sexy personality that grew on me as it opened in the glass, but it's much inferior to the stellar 1990. Make sure you decant this at least a couple hours ahead." #### CHÂTEAU HAUT-BRION 1995

Graves 1er Grand Cru Classé (5 scuffed labels) 5 bottles

"The 1995 seems to have sweeter tannin and a bit more fat and seamlessness when compared to the more structured and muscular 1996. Certainly 1995 was a vintage that the brilliant administrator Jean Delmas handled flawlessly. The result is a deep ruby/purple-colored wine with a tight but promising nose of burning wood embers intermixed with vanilla, spice box, earth, mineral, sweet cherry, black currant, plum-like fruit, medium to full body, a high level of ripe but sweet tannin, and a finish that goes on for a good 40-45 seconds." (96pts Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book, 4th Edition, Dec 2002)

$1,900 - 2,500

CHÂTEAU LAFITE-ROTHSCHILD 1983

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (base neck, stained label) 1 bottle

"The intoxicatingly perfumed nose of lead pencil, pain grille, red and black fruits, minerals, and roasted herbs is provocative. In the mouth, this wine displays considerable body for a Lafite, plenty of power, and a fleshy, rich, sweet mid-palate. Long, elegant, plump, and surprisingly fleshy, this outstanding example of Lafite seems largely forgotten given the number of high quality vintages during the golden decade of the eighties." (93pts Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book, 3rd Edition, Dec 1997)

$480 - 600

445

CHÂTEAU LAFITE-ROTHSCHILD 1986

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (lightly tattered and stained label) 1 bottle

"This is beautifully defined, still full of energy, with copious blackberry, clove, leather and graphite aromas that seem to gain momentum in the glass. The palate is extremely well balanced with a crystalline quality, filigree tannin, perfectly pitched acidity, a quintessential Lafite-Rothschild with a sense of energy and focus undiminished by time. This finish displays immense purity and refinement, one of the most mineral-driven Lafites that I have encountered, whilst the aftertaste seems to linger for over one minute. It must rank as one of the finest wines from the estate." (98pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #228, Dec 2016)

$850 - 1.000

CHÂTEAU LAFITE-ROTHSCHILD 2001

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (lightly scuffed label) 1 bottle

"Extremely elegant, medium-bodied, with intense concentration, richness, and sweet tannin, it appears to be on a rapid evolutionary track, at least in comparison to recent Lafite vintages that have been far more backward and powerful." (94pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #153, June 2004)

CHÂTEAU LATOUR 1989

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (lightly stained and wrinkled label) 1 bottle

"The 1989 Latour conveys the warmth of the growing season with scents of warm gravel and wild herbs infusing the soft, perhaps slightly muffled black fruit. There is a touch of brettanomyces here although it is less conspicuous than the 1990 Latour. The palate has thickset, guite firm tannin that lend this Latour presence and power. What it lacks compared to recent vintages is refinement and detail. That said, it builds nicely towards the soft (for Latour), pencil lead and undergrowth driven finish." #### CHÂTEAU MARGAUX 1989

Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé (1 lightly tattered and 2 lightly scuffed labels) 3 bottles

"Dwarfed by its younger sibling, the 1990, the 1989 Chateau Margaux has a dark plum/garnet color and a big, sweet nose of new saddle leather, toasty oak, and weedy black cherry and cassis fruit. The wine is medium-bodied, with relatively elevated tannins, outstanding concentration and purity, but a somewhat clipped as well as compressed finish." CHÂTEAU CHEVAL BLANC 2000

St-Émilion 1er Grand Cru Classé A
(lightly nicked label)

1 bottle

"Coming out of a relatively dormant state, this 2000 is a spectacular Cheval Blanc. Of recent vintages, I think only the 2009 can give it a run for its money. A blend of 53% Merlot and 47% Cabernet Franc, the wine has a sweet nose of menthol, melted licorice, boysenberry, blueberry, and cassis. A broad wine with compelling purity, a layered texture, and sweet tannin, with hints of coffee and earth in the background, this is by far the best Cheval Blanc since 1990 and before 2009. It is a legend in the making and can actually be drunk now, as the tannins have nearly melted away. This is a beauty with incredibly complex aromatics. Drink it over the next 25-30 years." (99pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #189, June 2010)

454 CHÂTEAU HAUT-BRION 2002 Graves 1er Grand Cru Classé(lightly scuffed label)

1 bottle

"Aromas of minerals, forest floor, fresh mushrooms, plums, and currants are present in the moderately fragrant bouquet. Angular, with hard tannin, medium body, and sweet plums as well as currants, this 2002 is harder and tougher-textured than from barrel. Like many 2002s, it is reserved and angular at present." #### CHÂTEAU LATOUR 2000

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (2 lightly stained labels) 2 bottles

"The extremely rich, black/purple color to the rim is followed by a wine with some subtle smoke, loads of minerals, a hint of vanilla, and plenty of creme de cassis as well as roasted meat and a slight scorched earth character. Broad, savory, and rich, the wine seems to be about 5 years away from full maturity and should drink well for at least 40-50 more years. A great effort, probably eclipsed only by 2003 and 2009." (98pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #189, June 2010)

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX 2000

Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé (1 lightly scuffed and 1 nicked label) 2 bottles

"Tasted blind, the 2000 Chateau Margaux was a reminder of the peaks that the millennial vintage could reach. Noticeably deep in color, the bouquet rivets you to the seat with copious red berry fruit, clove and truffle, hints of cedar emerging with time. As the aromatics open and aerate, the fruit profile seems to darken and manifests blackcurrants and bilberries. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin. There is immense depth and symmetry conveyed by this First Growth, quite masculine for the estate with a gentle but insistent grip. It is a brilliant wine that flirts with perfection." (99pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #229, Feb 2017)

$1,400 - 1,800

BAROLO RISERVA, MONFORTINO 1996

G. Conterno 1 bottle

"The 1996 Barolo Riserva Monfortino is a fabulous example of what makes top-flight Barolo so compelling. Light on its feet and yet powerful, the 1996 is endowed with magnificent complexity and myriad shades of nuance that develop as the wine sits in the glass. A host of dried cherry, licorice, smoke and savory herb notes wrap around a core of intense, dark fruit. The 1996 is remarkably vivid and detailed for such a big wine. Classically austere and yet wonderfully deep, the 1996 is simply tremendous." (97pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Oct 2017)

CHÂTEAU PONTET-CANET 2010

Pauillac 5me Cru Classé (1 nicked and 3 lightly scuffed labels) 4 bottles

"An astounding, compelling wine with the classic Pauillac nose more often associated with its cross-street neighbor, Mouton-Rothschild, creme de cassis, there are also some violets and other assorted floral notes. The wine has off-the-charts massiveness and intensity but never comes across as heavy, overbearing or astringent. The freshness, laser-like precision, and full-bodied, massive richness and extract are simply remarkable to behold and experience." (100pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #205, Feb 2013)

$650 - 850

VIEUX CHÂTEAU CERTAN 2009

Pomerol

(2 lightly scuffed labels)

4 bottles

"A blend of 84% Merlot and the rest equal parts Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon, it possesses a viscous texture as well as a freshness and vibrancy that are remarkable given the wine's weight, richness and potential massiveness. This extraordinary effort is one of the finest Vieux Chateau Certans made over the last sixty years." (99pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #199, Dec 2011)

$1,000 - 1,300

ARAUJO ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2002

Eisele Vinevard

(1 nicked and 2 lightly scuffed labels)

3 bottles

"Superripe, complex, slightly roasted nose combines black raspberry, dark chocolate, smoked meat, maple syrup, toffee, tobacco and licorice. Dense and aromatic in the mouth, with compelling sweetness and suavity of texture. Wonderfully opulent and seamless red wine. This finishes with huge but utterly fine tannins and lush, lingering flavor." (95pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2005)

BRYANT FAMILY CABERNET SAUVIGNON 1995

(1 heavily scuffed and 1 lightly scuffed label) 2 bottles

"Inviting aromas of red berries, spices and balsamic cedar, plus a faintly liqueur-like quality. At once silky-smooth and firmly built, conveying an impression of energy to its flavors of redcurrant, wild herbs and tobacco. Finishes with dusty but harmonious tannins. This is still remarkably youthful and gives the impression that it will continue to unwind with more time in the cellar." (95pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, May 2017)

DALLA VALLE MAYA 1992

"Racy and succulent to the core, the 1992 Maya impresses for its sheer depth. Black stone fruits, cloves, menthol, smoke and incense are some of the many notes that flesh out in a dramatic Maya endowed with tons of volume and equally intense tannins that ensure at least another handful of years of very fine drinking. The 1992 is a wine of pure texture and density." (95pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, June 2014)

"A vivid kaleidoscope of iron, ash, tar, smoke, crushed rocks and dark red berries take shape as this fabulous, pedigreed wine shows off its considerable personality. A cool, inward wine, the Ark is all about minerality and pure tension as a backdrop for the characteristic Hundred Acre fruit. A huge, mineral-soaked finish rounds things out in style. The 2009 is the rare Hundred Acre wine that is not likely to offer immediate pleasure. It will more than make up for that in the future." (96pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2012)

This extremely dense, thick, youthfully brooding Cabernet finishes with serious ripe tannins and good medicinal reserve. If the 2001 is claret-like in the context of this bottling, then the 2002 is classic liqueur-like Napa Cabernet, even if it's in a bit of a shell today." (94+pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, July 2016)

JOSEPH PHELPS CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2013

Backus Vineyard (6 lightly scuffed labels) 6 bottles

"... it is a massively tannic, powerful Cabernet Sauvignon that will require considerable patience. Firm, incisive tannins build to a finish laced with the essence of lavender, sage, menthol, plums and blue stone fruits. There is plenty to look forward to, but the 2013 appears to be a wine that will age at a glacial pace." (94-97pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Oct 2015)

$900 - 1,200

JOSEPH PHELPS INSIGNIA 2012

4 bottles

"Very ripe aromas of black raspberry, musky espresso and mocha, but the 14.6% alcohol is in line with other recent vintages. Fleshy, plush and sweet, showing a distinctly wild, gamey aspect to its dark fruit and espresso flavors. This viscous, full-bodied wine is wonderfully sweet and sexy today. The big, building back end features huge, ripe, dusty tannins that coat the front teeth. Will it shut down in the bottle? Certainly, the 2012 will rely more on its tannins than on its acidity for longevity." (94pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, April 2016)

JOSEPH PHELPS INSIGNIA 2013

(1 nicked label)

4 bottles

"Boasts outstanding purity and density of fruit but the wine's superb sweetness is nicely controlled by its sheer juicy concentration and spice character. Conveys great inner-mouth tension owing to its firm acidity and strong underlying minerality. A terrific early showing considering the recent bottling, with a high-pitched floral element that contributes to the wine's weightless impression." (95pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, April 2016)

St-Julien 3me Cru Classé

(1 lightly stained, 2 lightly bin-soiled and 3 lightly wrinkled labels, 2 lightly torn, 2 scuffed, 4 lightly scuffed and 7 water-stained labels) 16 bottles

"It has quite a potent bouquet, the Cabernet clearly having a field day, maybe just a little on the under-ripe side but that is compensated by the attractive tobacco and graphite scents, hints of morels and smoke. There is more vigor here than some of its peers. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly furry tannin. This 1988 remains fresh after thirty years, masculine and austere in style, the fruit having ebbed further away since I last tasted it." (88pts Neal Martin, Vinous, May 2018)

"Explosive, rather wild aromas of dark fruits, leather, animal fur and chocolate. Fat, lush and silky, with a seamless texture and a deep sweetness. This offers terrific volume and finishes very smooth and very long, with utterly suave tannins, notes of leather and game, and a suggestion of surmaturite According to Ducasse, 1990 witnessed cooler September nights than '89 and thus offered 'better conditions for producing great wine.' A superb showing." (93pts Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, Sept 2004)

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1986

Pauillac 1er Grand Cru Classé (scuffed, lightly stained and lightly wrinkled label) 1 bottle

"It has a powerful and intense bouquet as always: exemplary graphite and cedar scents, a touch of black pepper and incense. It seems to unfurl in the glass, like a motor revving its engine. The palate is beautifully balanced with its trademark firm tannic structure, a Mouton-Rothschild with backbone and masculinity. Layers of black fruit intermingling with mint and graphite, a hint of licorice emanating from the Merlot, gently fanning out and my God, it is incredibly long. It is not like the 1985 Mouton-Rothschild that is so fleshy and generous. This is serious, aristocratic Mouton, a true vin de garde and yes, I do think drinkers will have to wait until it reaches its true peak. Sometimes that's just the way it is." #### CHÂTEAU PALMER 1988

Margaux 3me Cru Classé

(3 lightly bin soiled and 6 lightly scuffed labels) 6 hottles

"This wine, like a number of 1988s, has matured well and is just beginning to show maturity. It has a dense, somewhat rugged constitution, with plenty of density, some earthy black fruits intermixed with licorice, compost, camphor, and roasted herbs. The wine is dense, medium to full-bodied, with some coarse tannins in the finish. I do not expect the tannins to ever melt away, but there is plenty of depth to this mouth-filling Palmer." Antinori (lightly scuffed label) 1 bottle

"Power and structure are the hallmarks of the 1999 Solaia, a wine that will drink well for another 15-20 years, if not longer. The firm, structured style will thrill classicists. In a flight of standout vintages, the 1999 truly excels. For years, the 1999 was very tight. It finally seems to be blossoming." (96+pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Dec 2013)

BARBERA D'ALBA RISERVA, VIGNETO POZZO DELL'ANNUNZIATA 2004

Roberto Voerzio (lightly wrinkled label, signed by Roberto Voerzio) 1 double magnum

"Voluptuous and racy on the palate, the 2004 Barbera d'Alba Riserva Vigneto Pozzo dell'Annunziata is in a gorgeous spot right now, where the flavors are just beginning to show elements of complexity and nuance gained in bottle. Suave, silky tannins wrap around a core of jammy dark stone fruits and expressive spiced notes. A vivid, powerful finish rounds things out nicely." (94pts Antonio Galloni, Vinous, May 2015)

HARBISON CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2014

Horseshoe 2 bottles

"The Horse Shoe wasn't made in 2013, but the 2014 Horse Shoe displays plenty of licorice, almost scorched volcanic earth, loamy soil and wet rocks. There's huge minerality running through this dense, concentrated wine, with loads of black fruits, supple tannins, and a full-bodied, multi-layered mouthfeel. It's another beauty to drink over the next 20 or so years, if you can resist it that long." (96pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

HARBISON CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2014

The Trail 2 bottles

"The 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon The Trail, which is slightly different than its older sibling, is 80% Cabernet Sauvignon and 20% Cabernet Franc aged in equal parts Taransaud and Darnajou barrels. This wine exhibits serious ripeness, great integrity of fruit purity, loads of crème de cassis and blackberry, some licorice, truffle and smoke. It is full-bodied, opulent, and sexy." Medium-bodied, incredibly elegant and yet with super-intense red and black fruits, it has a firm structure of grainy tannins and great freshness, finishing long and minerally." #### DOMINUS ESTATE 1991

(heavily wine-stained label, signs of past seepage, slightly depressed cork)

1 magnum

"...the 1991 Dominus possesses extraordinary intensity, remarkable opulence, and amazing fruit extraction, all welded to a full-bodied structure. The wine's sensational purity and inner-core of depth must be tasted to be believed. The 1991 will be approachable young because of its sweet tannin, yet it exhibits the potential to last for 25 years. Perhaps 1994 will rival it, but for now, the 1991 is unquestionably the greatest Dominus, as well as a potential legend in the making." (99pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #99, June 1995)

$500 - 700

DOMINUS ESTATE 1994

(scuffed, wrinkled and wine-stained label, signs of past seepage) 1 magnum

"The 1994 is a strikingly thick, compellingly rich wine with the texture of a great Pomerol, despite being made primarily from Cabernet Sauvignon. The wine exhibits a dense purple color, and an incredibly fragrant nose of jammy black fruits, spice, smoke, and loamy, truffle-like scents. In the mouth, it is full-bodied, with thrilling levels of extract and richness, but no sense of heaviness or harshness. This seamless Dominus possesses no hard edges, as its acidity, tannin, and alcohol are beautifully meshed with copious quantities of ripe fruit. This wine offers early drinking, yet has the potential to last for 30+ years." (99pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #114, Dec 1997)

CHÂTEAU CALON-SÉGUR 2005

St-Estèphe 3me Cru Classé

(2 lightly nicked labels, 1 slight signs of past seepage) 11 bottles

"It has a captivating nose: blackberry and boysenberry fruit coming at you at full pelt; dried blood and bacon fat developing as secondary aromas just behind. There is fine delineation here - an underlying mineralité sure to surface with time. The palate is very intense and disarmingly youthful, almost ferrous on the entry with layers of ripe black fruit that segue into an earthy finish (with a curious light tang of Marmite on the aftertaste!). It is a fabulous Calon Ségur..." (94pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #227, Oct 2016)

CONDITIONS OF SALE FOR FINE & RARE WINES

The following Conditions of Sale, as amended by any published or posted notices or verbal announcements during the sale, constitute the entire terms and conditions on which property listed in the catalog shall be offered for sale or sold by Bonhams & Butterfields Auctioneers Corp. and any consignor of such property for whom we act as agent. As used herein, "Bonhams," "we" and "us" refer to Bonhams & Butterfields Auctioneers Corp. If live online bidding is available for the subject auction, additional terms and conditions of sale relating to online bidding will apply; see www.bonhams. com/WebTerms for the supplemental terms. As used herein, "Bonhams," "we" and "us" refer to Bonhams & Butterfields Auctioneers Corp.

- 1. Bidders and purchasers must be at least 21 years of age to participate in the auction and have the legal authority to buy, receive and possess the alcoholic beverage lots offered in the catalog. Each winning bidder shall present satisfactory legal documentation that he or she is at least 21 years of age. In the case of a purchaser that is a corporation, partnership or similar entity, the person receiving the purchased lots on its behalf must meet the foregoing requirements.
- 2. Unless otherwise noted, all wines are of good appearance (good appearance means a standard level of fill, given the wine's age) and have a clean, intact label, a cork that appears to be sound and no evidence of leaking. Purchasers of older wines must make appropriate allowances for natural variation of ullages and conditions of cork and wine. Except as expressly stated below, no wine returns will be accepted.
- 3. All Bordeaux wines are château bottled unless otherwise noted. All other wines are cataloged with the producer and/or bottler noted, where appropriate. All German wines are Riesling unless otherwise noted.
- 4. For reference, Bordeaux wines are cataloged with their area for 1855 classification. Since the wines of Pomerol are not officially classified, the generally accepted practice of granting Château Pétrus Premier Cru Classe will be followed. Other well-known Pomerol Chateaux will be cataloged as Cru Classe.
- 5. Solely for the convenience of bidders, a currency converter may be provided at the auction. The rates quoted for conversion of other currencies to U.S. dollars are indications only and should not be relied upon by a bidder, and Bonhams, Bedford and their respective agents shall not be responsible for any errors or omissions in the currency converter.
- 6. As used herein, the term "bid price" means the price at which a lot is successfully knocked down to the purchaser. The term "purchase price" means the aggregate of (a) the bid price,

- (b) a PREMIUM retained by us and payable by the purchaser EQUAL TO 22.5% OF THE BID PRICE, and (c) unless the purchaser is exempt by law from the payment thereof, any Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Massachusetts, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas, Virginia, Washington, D.C., Washington state, or other state or local sales tax (or compensating use tax) and other applicable taxes.
- 7. On the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, the highest bidder shall have purchased the offered lot in accordance and subject to compliance with all of the conditions set forth herein and (a) assumes full risk and responsibility therefor, (b) if requested will sign a confirmation of purchase, and (c) will pay the purchase price in full or such part as we may require for all lots purchased. No lot may be transferred. Any person placing a bid as agent on behalf of another (whether or not such person has disclosed that fact or the identity of the principal) may be jointly and severally liable with the principal under any contract resulting from the acceptance of a bid.

Unless otherwise agreed, payment in good funds is due and payable within five (5) business days following the auction sale. Whenever the purchaser pays only a part of the total purchase price for one or more lots purchased, we may apply such payments, in our sole discretion, to the lot or lots we choose. Payment will not be deemed made in full until we have collected good funds for all amounts due.

Payment for purchases may be made in or by (a) cash, (b) cashier's check or money order, (c) personal check with approved credit drawn on a U.S. bank, (d) wire transfer or other immediate bank transfer, or (e) Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover credit, charge or debit card. A processing fee will be assessed on any returned checks. Please note that the amount of cash notes and cash equivalents that can be accepted from a given purchaser may be limited.

The purchaser grants us a security interest in the property, and we may retain as collateral security for the purchaser's obligations to us, any property and all monies held or received by us for the account of the purchaser, in our possession. We retain all rights of a secured party under the California Commercial Code. If the foregoing conditions or any other applicable conditions herein are not complied with, in addition to other remedies available to us and the consignor by law, including without limitation, the right to hold the purchaser liable for the purchase price, we at our option may either (a) cancel the sale, retaining as liquidated damages all payments made by the purchaser or (b) resell the property, either publicly or privately, and in such event the purchaser shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency plus all costs and expenses of both sales, our commission at our standard rates, all other charges due hereunder, attorneys' fees, expenses and incidental damages. In addition, where two or more amounts are owed in respect of different transactions by the purchaser to us, to Bonhams 1793 Limited and/or to any of our other affiliates, subsidiaries or parent companies worldwide within the Bonhams Group, we reserve the right to apply any monies paid in respect of a transaction to discharge any amount owed by the purchaser. If all fees, commissions, premiums, bid price and other sums due to us from the purchaser are not paid promptly as provided in these Conditions of Sale, we reserve the right to impose a finance charge equal to 1.5% per month on all amounts due to us beginning on the 31st day following the sale until payment is received, in addition to other remedies available to us by law.

- 8. We reserve the right to withdraw any property and to divide and combine lots at any time before such property's auction. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale, all bids are per lot as numbered in the catalog and no lots shall be divided or combined for sale.
- 9. We reserve the right to reject a bid from any bidder, to split any bidding increment, and to advance the bidding in any manner the auctioneer may decide. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or in the event the auctioneer doubts the validity of any bid, the auctioneer shall have sole and final discretion either to determine the successful bidder or to re-offer and resell the article in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, our sales records shall be conclusive in all respects.
- 10. If we are prevented by fire, theft or any other reason whatsoever from delivering any property to the purchaser or a sale otherwise cannot be completed, our liability shall be limited to the sum actually paid therefor by the purchaser and shall in no event include any compensatory, incidental or consequential damages.
- 11. If a lot is offered subject to a reserve, we may implement such reserve by bidding on behalf of the consignor, whether by opening bidding or continuing bidding in response to other bidders until reaching the reserve. If we have an interest in an offered lot and the proceeds therefrom other than our commissions, we may bid therefor to protect such interest. CONSIGNORS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO BID ON THEIR OWN ITEMS.
- 12. All statements contained in the catalog or in any bill of sale, condition report, invoice or elsewhere as to authorship, period, culture, source, origin, measurement, quality, rarity, provenance, importance, exhibition and literature of historical relevance, or physical condition

ARE QUALIFIED STATEMENTS OF OPINION AND NOT REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES. No employee or agent of Bonhams is authorized to make on our behalf or on that of the consignor any representation or warranty, oral or written, with respect to any property.

13. All purchased property shall be removed from the premises at which the sale is conducted by the date(s) and time(s) set forth in the "Notice to Bidders" or "Buyer's Guide" portion of this catalog. Purchased property that is permitted to remain onsite at Bonhams' facility should be removed at the purchaser's expense promptly following the date of the sale. If not so removed, a storage fee of $5.00 per lot per day will be payable to us by the purchaser beginning at the close of the 60th day following the sale, and we may thereafter transfer such property to an offsite warehouse at the purchaser's risk and expense. Accounts must be settled in full before property will be released.

Packing and handling of purchased lots are the sole responsibility of the purchaser. Limited shipping of wines may be arranged through Bonhams as described elsewhere in the catalog. Purchaser will bear the cost and risk of any packing, pick-up, shipping, insurance and any applicable taxes thereon. Bonhams assumes no liability for assisting with any customer's packing, shipping or insurance arrangements. Bonhams and the consignors will not be liable for any acts or omissions of any third party packers or carriers, whether or not recommended by us. Such packers or carriers may carry their own insurance and any claim for lost or damaged property should be addressed directly to them.

Bonhams makes no representations as to the legal rights of anyone to ship or import alcoholic beverages into or within any state or jurisdiction. Purchasers are required to comply with their respective states' or jurisdictions' regulations regarding the importation, exportation and shipment of alcoholic beverages, and purchasers are solely responsible for the importation, exportation and shipment of alcoholic beverage products purchased. All alcoholic beverage property, however shipped or received, requires the recipient to be in possession of photo identification confirming that he or she is 21 years of age or older. In addition, many jurisdictions prohibit the importation, or limit the quantity, of alcoholic beverages entering such jurisdiction, and some jurisdictions require the purchaser, seller and/or shipper to obtain certain permits or licenses prior thereto. It is the purchaser's sole responsibility to determine whether any such restrictions, limitations or prohibitions are applicable prior to bidding and to obtain any required permits or licenses, and any delay in obtaining or the denial of any such permit or license shall not serve as the basis for any cancellation or rescission of any purchase made hereunder or any delay in making full payment for the purchase when due.

- 14. The copyright in the text of the catalog and the photographs, digital images and illustrations of lots in the catalog belong to Bonhams or its licensors. You will not reproduce or permit anyone else to reproduce such text, photographs, digital images or illustrations without our prior written consent.
- 15. These Conditions of Sale shall bind the successors and assigns of all bidders and purchasers and inure to the benefit of our successors and assigns. No waiver, amendment or modification of the terms hereof (other than published or posted notices or oral announcements during the sale) shall bind us unless specifically stated in writing and signed by us. If any part of these Conditions of Sale is for any reason invalid or unenforceable, the rest shall remain valid and enforceable.
- 16. These Conditions of Sale and the purchaser's and our respective rights and obligations hereunder are governed by the laws of the State of California. By bidding at an auction, each purchaser and bidder agrees to be bound by these Conditions of Sale. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this agreement, or the breach, termination or validity thereof, brought by or against Bonhams (but not including claims brought against the consignor by the purchaser of lots consigned hereunder) shall be resolved by the procedures set forth below.

MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

- (a) Within 30 days of written notice that there is a dispute, the parties or their authorized and empowered representatives shall meet by telephone and/or in person to mediate their differences. Any communications made during the mediation process shall not be admissible in any subsequent arbitration, mediation or judicial proceeding. All proceedings and any resolutions thereof shall be confidential, and the terms governing arbitration set forth in paragraph (c) below shall govern.
- (b) If mediation does not resolve all disputes between the parties, or in any event no longer than 60 days after receipt of the written notice of dispute referred to above, the parties shall submit the dispute for binding arbitration before a single neutral arbitrator. Such arbitrator shall be a retired judge or an attorney familiar with commercial law and trained in or qualified by experience in handling arbitrations. Such arbitrator shall make all appropriate disclosures required by law. If the parties cannot agree on a national arbitration service, the arbitration shall be conducted by the American Arbitration Association, and the arbitrator shall be selected in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitrator's award shall be in writing and shall set forth findings of fact and legal conclusions.
- (c) Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or provided by the published rules of the national arbitration service:
- (i) the arbitration shall occur within 60 days following the selection of the arbitrator;

LIMITED RIGHT OF RESCISSION FOR WINE

If within 21 days after the date of sale the original purchaser (a) delivers written notice to us alleging that a wine lot is short or ullaged or is out of condition (other than as described in the catalog)

or that the identification of such lot as set forth in the catalog description of such lot (as amended by any saleroom notices or verbal announcements during the sale) is not substantially correct based on a fair reading of the catalog (including the terms of any glossary contained therein), and (b) within 10 days after such notice returns the lot to us in the same condition as at the time of sale, and (c) establishes the allegation in the notice to our satisfaction (including by providing one or more written opinions by recognized experts in the field, as we may reasonably require), then the sale of such lot will be rescinded and, unless we have already paid to the consignor monies owed him in connection with the sale, the original purchase price will be refunded.

If, prior to receiving such notice from the original purchaser alleging such defect, we have paid the consignor monies owed him in connection with the sale, we shall pay the original purchaser the amount of our commissions, any other sale proceeds to which we are entitled and applicable taxes received from the purchaser on the sale and make demand on the consignor to pay the balance of the original purchase price to the original purchaser. Should the consignor fail to pay such amount promptly, we may disclose the identity of the consignor and assign to the original purchaser our rights against the consignor with respect to the lot the sale of which is sought to be rescinded. Upon such disclosure and assignment, any liability of Bonhams as consignor's agent with respect to said lot shall automatically terminate.

The foregoing limited right of rescission is available to the original purchaser only and may not be assigned to or relied upon by any subsequent transferee of the property sold. The purchaser hereby accepts the benefit of the consignor's warranty of title and other representations and warranties made by the consignor for the purchaser's benefit. Nothing in this section shall be construed as an admission by us of any representation of fact, express or implied, obligation or responsibility with respect to any lot. THE PURCHASER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY AGAINST BONHAMS FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER IS THE LIMITED RIGHT OF RESCISSION DESCRIBED IN THIS SECTION.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Except as expressly provided above, all property is sold "AS IS." Neither Bonhams nor the consignor makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the title, merchantability, fitness or condition of the property or as to the correctness of description, genuineness, attribution, provenance or period of the property or as to whether the purchaser acquires any copyrights or other intellectual property rights in lots sold or as to whether a work of art is subject to the artist's moral rights or other residual rights of the artist. The purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees that in no event shall Bonhams be liable for any damages including, without limitation, any compensatory, incidental or consequential damages.

SELLER'S GUIDE

SELLING AT AUCTION

Bonhams can help you every step of the way when you are ready to sell art, antiques and collectible items at auction. Our regional offices and representatives throughout the US are available to service all of your needs. Should you have any further questions, please visit our website at WWW. BONHAMS.COM/US for more information or call our Client Services Department at +1 (415) 861 7500.

AUCTION ESTIMATES

The first step in the auction process is to determine the auction value of your property. Bonhams world-renowned specialists will evaluate your special items at no charge and in complete confidence. You can obtain an auction estimate in many ways:

- Attend one of our Auction Appraisal Events held regularly at our galleries and in other major metropolitan areas. The updated schedule for Bonhams Auction Appraisal Events is available at WWW.BONHAMS.COM/US.
- Call our Client Services Department to schedule a private appointment at one of our galleries. If you have a large collection, our specialists can travel, by appointment, to evaluate your property on site.
- Send clear photographs to us of each individual item, including item dimensions and other pertinent information with each picture. Photos should be sent to Bonhams address in envelopes marked as "photo auction estimate". Alternatively, you can submit your request using our online form at WWW.BONHAMS.COM/US. Digital images may be attached to the form. Please limit your images to no more than five (5) per item.

CONSIGNING YOUR PROPERTY

After you receive an estimate, you may consign your property to us for sale in the next appropriate auction. Our staff assists you throughout the process, arranging transportation of your items to our galleries (at the consignor's expense), providing a detailed inventory of your consignment, and reporting the prices realized for each lot. We provide secure storage for your property in our warehouses and all items are insured throughout the auction process. You will receive payment for your property approximately 35 days after completion of sale.

Sales commissions vary with the potential auction value of the property and the particular auction in which the property is offered. Please call us for commission rates.

PROFESSIONAL APPRAISAL SERVICES

Bonhams specialists conduct insurance and fair market value appraisals for private collectors, corporations, museums, fiduciaries and government entities on a daily basis. Insurance appraisals, used for insurance purposes, reflect the cost of replacing property in today's retail market.

Fair market value appraisals are used for estate, tax and family division purposes and reflect prices paid by a willing buyer to a willing seller.

When we conduct a private appraisal, our specialists will prepare a thorough inventory listing of all your appraised property by category. Valuations, complete descriptions and locations of items are included in the documentation.

Appraisal fees vary according to the nature of the collection, the amount of work involved, the travel distance, and whether the property is subsequently consigned for auction.

Our appraisers are available to help you anywhere and at any time. Please call our Client Services Department to schedule an appraisal.

ESTATE SERVICES

Since 1865, Bonhams has been serving the needs of fiduciaries – lawyers, trust officers, accountants and executors – in the disposition of large and small estates. Our services are specially designed to aid in the efficient appraisal and disposition of fine art, antiques, jewelry, and collectibles. We offer a full range of estate services, ranging from flexible financial terms to tailored accounting for heirs and their agents to world-class marketing and sales support.

For more information or to obtain a detailed Trust and Estates package, please visit our website at WWW.BONHAMS. COM/US or contact our Client Services Department.

BUYER'S GUIDE

BIDDING & BUYING AT AUCTION

Whether you are an experienced bidder or an enthusiastic novice, auctions provide a stimulating atmosphere unlike any other. Bonhams previews and sales are free and open to the public. As you will find in these directions, bidding and buying at auction is easy and exciting. Should you have any further questions, please visit our website at WWW. BONHAMS.COM/US or call our Client Services Department at +1 (800) 223 2854 ext. 23550.

CATALOGS

Before each auction we publish illustrated catalogs that include dates and times for previews and auctions. Our catalogs also provide descriptions and estimated values for each "lot." A lot may refer to a single item or to a group of items auctioned together. We offer our catalogs by subscription or by single copy. For information on subscribing to our catalogs, you may refer to the subscription form in this catalog, call our Client Services Department, or visit our website at WWW.BONHAMS.COM/US.

PREVIEWS

Auction previews are your chance to inspect each lot prior to the auction. We encourage you to look closely and examine each object on which you may want to bid so that you will know as much as possible about it. Items are sold "as is" and with all faults; illustrations in our catalogs, website and other materials are provided for identification only. At the previews, our staff is always available to answer your questions and guide you through the auction process. Condition reports may be available upon request.

ESTIMATES

Bonhams catalogs include estimates for each lot, exclusive of buyer's premium and tax. The estimates are provided as an approximate guide to current market value and should not be interpreted as a representation or prediction of actual selling prices. They are determined well in advance of a sale and are subject to revision. Please contact us should you have any questions about value estimates.

RESERVES

All lots in a catalog are subject to a reserve unless otherwise indicated. The reserve is the minimum price that the seller is willing to accept for a lot. This amount is confidential and does not exceed the low estimated value.

BIDDING AT AUCTION

At Bonhams, you can bid in many ways: in person, via absentee bid, over the phone, or via Bonhams' online bidding facility. Absentee bids can be submitted in person, online, via fax or via email.

A valid Bonhams client account is required to participate in bidding activity. You can obtain registration information online, at the reception desk or by calling our Client Services Department.

By bidding at auction, whether in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone, online or other means, the buyer or bidder agrees to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order as they appear in the catalog. Bidding normally begins below the low estimate. The auctioneer will accept bids from interested parties present in the saleroom, from telephone bidders, and from absentee bidders who have left written bids in advance of the sale. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the consignor up to the amount of the reserve, but never above it.

We assume no responsibility for failure to execute bids for any reason whatsoever.

IN PERSON

If you are planning to bid at auction, you will need to register at the reception desk in order to receive a numbered bid card. To place a bid, hold up your card so that the auctioneer can clearly see it. Decide on the maximum amount that you wish to pay, exclusive of buyer's premium and tax, and continue bidding until your bid prevails or you reach your limit. If you are the successful bidder on a lot, the auctioneer will acknowledge your paddle number and bid amount.

ABSENTEE BIDS

As a service to those wishing to place bids, we may at our discretion accept bids without charge in advance of sale in writing on bidding forms available from us. "Buy" bids will not be accepted; all bids must state the highest bid price the bidder is willing to pay. Our auction staff will try to bid just as you would, with the goal of obtaining the item at the lowest bid price possible. In the event identical bids are submitted, the earliest bid submitted will take precedence. Absentee bids shall be executed in competition with other absentee bids, any applicable reserve, and bids from other auction participants. A friend or agent may place bids on your behalf, provided that we have received your written authorization prior to the sale. Absentee bid forms are available in our catalogs, online at WWW.BONHAMS.COM/US. and at our San Francisco, Los Angeles and New York galleries.

BY TELEPHONE

Under special circumstances, we can arrange for you to bid by telephone. To arrange for a telephone bid, please contact our Client Services Department a minimum of 24 hours prior to the sale.

ONLINE

Web users may place absentee bids online from anywhere in the world. To bid online, please visit our website at WWW.BONHAMS.COM/US.

BID INCREMENTS

Bonhams generally uses the following increment multiples as bidding progresses:

$50-200k	oy $10s
$200-500k	y $20/50/80s
$500-1,000k	y $50s

$100,000-200,000k	oy $10,000s
above $200,000	at auctioneer's discretion

THE AUCTIONEER MAY SPLIT OR REJECT ANY BID AT ANY TIME AT HIS OR HER DISCRETION AS OUTLINED IN THE CONDITIONS OF SALE.

CURRENCY CONVERTER

Solely for the convenience of bidders, a currency converter may be provided at Bonhams sales. The rates quoted for conversion of other currencies to U.S. Dollars are indications only and should not be relied upon by a bidder, and neither Bonhams nor its agents shall be responsible for any errors or omissions in the operation or accuracy of the currency converter.

BUYER'S PREMIUM

A buyer's premium is added to the winning bid price of each individual lot purchased, at the rates set forth in the Conditions of Sale. The winning bid price plus the premium constitute the purchase price for the lot. Applicable sales taxes are computed based on this figure, and the total becomes your final purchase price.

Unless specifically illustrated and noted, fine art frames are not included in the estimate or purchase price. Bonhams accepts no liability for damage or loss to frames during storage or shipment.

All sales are final and subject to the Conditions of Sale found in our catalogs, on our website, and available at the reception desk.

PAYMENT

All buyers are asked to pay and pick up by 3pm on the business day following the auction. Payment may be made to Bonhams by cash, checks drawn on a U.S. bank, money order, wire transfer, or by Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover credit or charge card or debit card. All items must be paid for within 5 business days of the sale. Please note that payment by personal or business check may result in property not being released until purchase funds clear our bank.

SALES TAX

Residents of states listed in Paragraph 6 of the Conditions of Sale must pay applicable sales tax. Other state or local taxes (or compensation use taxes) may apply. Sales tax will be automatically added to the invoice unless a valid resale number has been furnished or the property is shipped via common carrier to destinations outside the states listed in the Conditions of Sale. If you wish to use your resale license please contact Cashiers for our form.

AUCTION RESULTS

Auction results are usually available on the next business day following the sale or online at www.bonhams.com/us.
